About
College

Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College was established in July 1973 by the Administration of Delhi. It is named after one of the greatest freedom fighters and sons of the Indian soil 'Shaheed-E-Azam' Bhagat Singh. It is one of the constituent colleges of the University of Delhi, India. The foundational idea of the college is service to the nation as a vital part of one's life and as a guiding light for the development of society. This idea is inculcated in students every step of the way.

Over the years, the college has seen remarkable growth in terms of facilities, infrastructure, curricular, and extracurricular activities. It offers undergraduate courses in Humanities and Commerce. It has an accomplished faculty of over a 100 members dedicated to guiding the students in academics and life. The College also has a rich collection of books and journals in its library, the NSS and NCC Rooms, etc. The college offers facilities such as seminar room, bank, geography and computer labs, girls' common room, first aid, photostat and more. Apart from this, the college has societies to cater to students' interests and shape their career prospects, ranging from dramatics, music and photography to economics, commerce association and capacity building cell. In this era of multilateralism and globalisation, we have not confined ourselves to classroom learning only. We believe in all-round development of skills through practical knowledge and critical thinking to make students realise their potential and grab opportunities in a fast changing global scenario.

In last academic year due to Covid-19 crisis, the classes were conducted online via Google Classroom and Google Meet. Many online events and International Webinars were also conducted online.

The college has been accredited with 'A' Grade with a score of 3.6 by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Government of India in 2017 for 5 years.

Vision

The vision of the college is ingrained in its logo 'Rashtra Devo Bhava'. The logo exemplifies the values cherished by the great son of India Shaheed-e- Aazam Bhagat Singh i.e., service to the nation comes first.

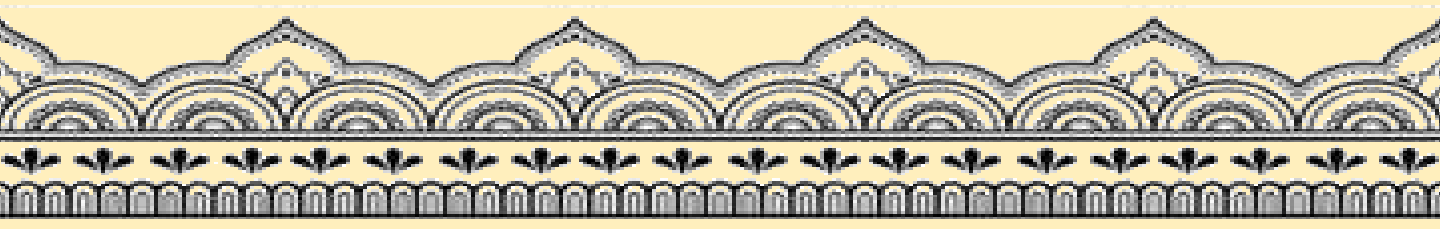

Mission

- To create an effective teaching-learning environment that enables the students to realize their full potential
- To develop the College as a catalyst of change and growth to prepare students to think critically and act responsibly in a rapidly changing global environment
- To inculcate among the college community, a sense of environmental responsibility to adopt environment-friendly practices as a way of life
- To foster equitable education for all strata of society, create effective student-teacher mechanisms, adopt the methods and mode of education that can help us to achieve Sustainable Development Goal- SDG (4) of United Nations.

मुझे अत्यंत प्रसन्नता है कि सांध्यालोक का 49 वां अंक प्रकाशित हो रहा है। सांध्यालोक ना सिर्फ महाविद्यालय के छात्र-छात्राओं और शिक्षकों की रचनात्मक प्रतिभाओं को प्रोत्साहित करती है, बल्कि यह महाविद्यालय की उपलब्धियों का प्रतीक है। सांध्यालोक के द्वारा विद्यार्थी और शिक्षक खुलकर अपने विचारों को व्यक्त करते हैं और अपनी समस्याओं से अवगत कराते हैं, और साथ ही नयी राह भी दिखाते हैं। विशेषकर सांध्यालोक की रचनाओं के द्वारा हमें विद्यार्थियों की मानसिकता, उनके संघर्ष और उनकी समस्याओं का पता लगता है

जो कि कॉलेज की नीति निर्धारण में महत्वपूर्ण भूमिका निभाती है।

अगला शैक्षिक वर्ष 2022- 23 कॉलेज का स्वर्ण जयंती वर्ष है। कॉलेज का 50 वां वर्ष हमें आत्मावलोकन के अवसर दे रहा है जिसमें चिंतन और मनन के द्वारा हमने जो भी हासिल किया है, उसका मूल्यांकन करेंगे और आने वाले वर्षों में महाविद्यालय किस दिशा में जाए इसका निर्धारण करेंगे। अगला वर्ष इसलिए भी महत्वपूर्ण होगा क्योंकि दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय में राष्ट्रीय शिक्षा नीति का क्रियान्वयन होने जा रहा है। 3 वर्ष का बी.ए. का पाठ्यक्रम अब 4 वर्षीय पाठ्यक्रम में परिवर्तित हो जाएगा। साथ ही राष्ट्रीय शिक्षा नीति के अंतर्गत महाविद्यालय के वातावरण में महत्वपूर्ण बदलाव आने वाला है। पाठ्यक्रम शिक्षण - सीखने की प्रक्रिया, विश्लेषणात्मक, कौशल वृद्धि तथा रोजगार पर केंद्रित होगा। इस बदले परिवेश में महाविद्यालय नई नीतियों के द्वारा विद्यार्थियों के सर्वांगीण विकास और विद्यार्थियों में राष्ट्र प्रेम एवम राष्ट्र निर्माण की भावना विकसित करने में अपनी महत्वपूर्ण भूमिका निभाएगा। मैं डॉ. सुमन यादव और उनकी संपादकीय टीम को सांध्यालोक के 49 अंक के प्रकाशन के लिए बधाई देता हूँ।

College Magazine Committee

Meri Kalam Se...

I feel extremely happy for the chance to speak to you for the third time through this e-Magazine. Publishing a magazine is indeed a tedious and herculean task. In recent years, when our students are concerned more about academic excellence, they have to be coaxed, persuaded, and encouraged to exhibit their writing talents. The response of the students in contributing articles was overwhelming. The articles contributed by students show their intellectual insights and command over language. Over the years, the college magazine has provided students an opportunity to share their ideas and topics of interest.

‘Sandhyalok’ is a wonderful magazine, a testimony to the commendable efforts put in by the team. Since its inception, the efforts taken to bring out innovative content have been appreciable. ‘Sandhyalok’ is not only a magazine; it is a mirror of life in our beloved college. It reflects the literary, educational, sports activities and important events in the college during the year. ‘Sandhyalok’ is an annual result sheet of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College published in a form of a magazine. As you scan through the pages, it will enlighten you about important milestones that the college has achieved in the past year. Besides, our budding talents have expressed their thoughts, ideas, hopes, feelings, aspirations and convictions in a creative way.

This current academic year has been an extraordinary challenge on account of COVID-19. However, the pandemic gave us an opportunity to rethink and reassess strategies in the field of higher education. The times of crisis ought to inspire creativity, critical reflection, transformation, and renewal. In the new normal, the challenge is to adapt, regenerate, and position the college for a strong and sustainable future. Striving for a vibrant and dynamic academic atmosphere is a wholesome and holistic exercise. मुश्किल समय में कुछ लोग खुद टूट जाते हैं, और कुछ लोग रिकॉर्ड तोड़ते हैं. This calls for the integration of students in the qualitative processes of the college. It necessitates an innovation ecosystem to hone the skills of students in diverse programs and mould them into notable change-makers. With a sense of pride and satisfaction and the active support of the administration, faculty, TICs, non-teaching staff and students, 'Sandhyalok' has come alive by crossing all the hurdles of tough time.

My team has put forth commendable efforts to showcase creative abilities, dreams and aspirations. 'Sandhyalok' is the result of dedicated teamwork put in by all. First, I would like to thank our patron, Principal Prof. Sudhir Kumar Sinha, for his valuable suggestions and active support for betterment of the magazine. Further, I would like to thank all members of my editorial team Ms. Nidhi Lakhotra, Dr. Ranjeet Kumar, Ms. Kirti Singh, Mr. Saurabh Dubey, Ms. Ankita Shree, Dr. Manjari Gupta, Ms. Pooja Sharma, Dr. Gaurav Nain, Mr. Rajan, Dr. Manish Kumar and Mr. Ghanshyam Chand Yadav for helping me pull this through. I sincerely appreciate the dedication of my team of students: Mr. Kartik Kanojia, Ms. Sakshi Suri and Mo. Farzeen Rais, who ensured smooth completion of this voyage by putting their heart and soul into it.

I express my appreciation for all authors of the articles in this magazine. These contributions have required a generous amount of time and effort. It is their willingness to share knowledge, concerns and insights, that has made this magazine possible. I express my deep gratitude to all the Convenors and Members of the Committees for providing the reports incorporated in the magazine. I am highly thankful to all the teachers in charge, faculty members, non-teaching staff, and students for their support and guidance in facilitating this e-Magazine. I hope that my esteemed colleagues and students will be interested in bringing articles with even brighter concepts and innovative ideas in the next issue. I wish them victory in all their future endeavours. It is heartening to share the online version of 'Sandhyalok'. Hopefully we shall be able to continue the e-magazine in future. Wishing the editorial team all the very best for their future endeavours.

In the current year, India is celebrating the 'Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav' and the college is marking its Golden Jubilee in the coming year. At this juncture, let us strive for consistent and catalytic improvement in overall development paving the way for innovative ideas by invoking the blessings of our beloved legend Shaheed Bhagat Singh Ji to march ahead and gear up to myriad challenges.

College Events

Orientation Day

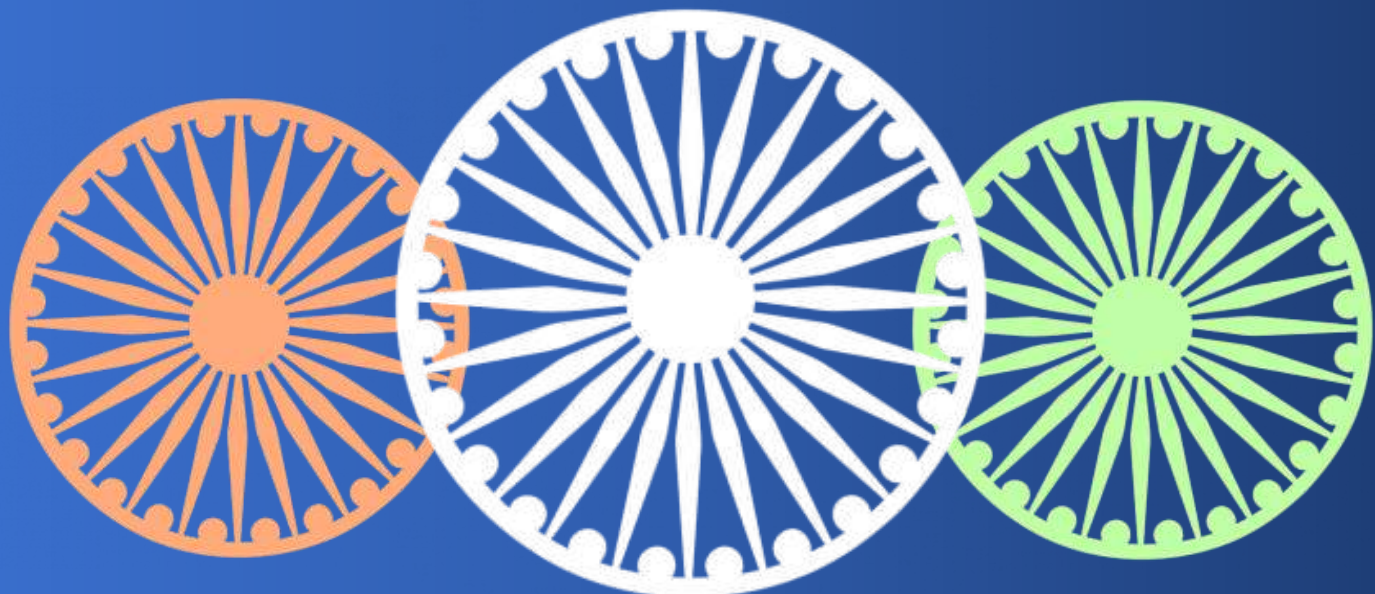

Amidst the COVID-19 protocols for the second consecutive year, the Orientation Day was organized virtually. The programme was organised via Google Meet platform and on Facebook Live on 22 November 2021 to welcome and familiarise the newly admitted students and their parents. The program was conducted and hosted by Mr. Sunil Kumar, Secretary, Staff Council of the college. Principal Prof. S.K. Sinha, in his opening remarks, welcomed the students to the college and described the chief attractions of the college. He also introduced the various departments and societies of the college, apart from sharing vital details about the courses being offered. He laid out in detail the vision of the college and addressed the aspirations of the students who are about to begin a new phase in their educational careers.

Mr. Sunil Kumar also explained the process of online teaching in college. He explained how classes were being taken on Google Meet, Assignments and study material was being provided through Google Classroom or Gmail and for communication WhatsApp groups were being made. He also conveyed the message that any type of indiscipline in virtual class will be not tolerated and strict action will be taken by College Discipline Committee. Thereafter, respective Teachers-in-Charges of the various departments introduced their departments along with their faculty members. They also briefly explained the structures and syllabi of the courses being offered and discussed how the Online Classes were going to be conducted.

Students were informed about the vibrant cultural atmosphere of the college by Convenors of various committees and societies, who enumerated all the extra-curricular activities, sports activities, and societies that students could join according as per interests. They were also informed about the rules and regulations regarding attendance, anti-ragging policy of the college, discipline related norms, and the provisions relating to co-curricular activities. The program ended on a high note and was received by students enthusiastically. Students were encouraged to follow COVID-19 related safety norms.

Republic Day: 'Mahotsav Azadi Ka' Festival

Under the aegis of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, the college celebrated the 'Mahotsav Azadi Ka' festival on the occasion of Republic Day. This festival lasted one week and included several activities such as a singing competition (Sur Kshetra 26), poem competition (Veer Ras 26), a debating competition (Pratiwad 26), and a webinar on the theme "Mera Bharat Mera Gantantra". Apart from this, a campaign of 'Seven Days, Seven Fighters and Seven Lessons' was also started under which various freedom fighters were introduced to the country throughout the week and tribute was paid to them.

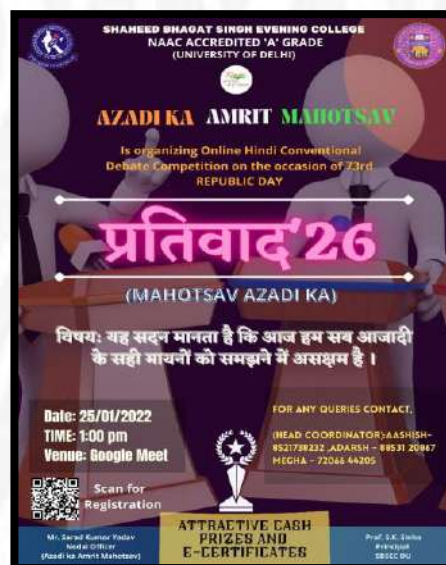

1. The first event was a singing competition 'Sur Kshetra 26' which was organised on 22 January 2022, under the leadership of Kritika Gupta. Students from all over the country participated and made the event melodious with their music. The judge of this competition was Deepmala Poonawalla and the winners of the event were: First Prize Vismay Chandra (Shaheed Bhagat Singh Sandhya Mahavidyalaya), Second Prize Samay Jain (Maharaja Agrasen Institute), and Third Prize Samarth.
2. The second event was the Veer Ras 26 Poetry Competition organised under the leadership of Mahi Jain. Students from different universities all over India participated and captivated everyone with their poems. More than 15 beautiful and courageous poems on Veer Ras were presented in this competition. The winners of this competition were: First Prize Neetu Sri Venkateswara College, Second Prize Dhruva Varsanve Sri Venkateswara College, and Third Prize Aman Bahaduriya Sri Aurobindo College.

3. The third event was a debate competition 'Prativaad 26, organized under the leadership of Adarsh Bhardwaj on 25 January 2022. Students from all over the nation participated in the competition and presented their views. With their presentations, the students proved that our youth are not only aware of the problems of our nation but also ready with solutions. The judges of this competition were Mr. Keshav and Mr. Arun Yadav. The winners of this competition were: First Prize Preeti Sarf and Himani, Gargi College, Second Prize Vinay Kandpal and Anubhav Singh, Ramjas College, and Third Prize Shruti Bansal and Abhishek, Sri Venkateswara College.

In the end, a webinar was organised on 26 January 2022 on the topic 'Mera Bharat Mera Gantantra' as a closing ceremony under the leadership of Prarthna Mishra. In this webinar, the team of department along with participants, the principal and teaching staff of the college remembered the freedom fighters and paid tribute to them. The results of the competitions organised under Mahotsav Azadi were also announced in this webinar.

The celebration was very memorable for the college and participants. Through this, everyone got a chance to know and remember our great freedom fighters. It also gave students a big platform to present their art and ideas.

Shaheedi Diwas

The College organizes Shaheed Bhagat Singh Memorial Lecture on Martyrdom Day of Sardar Bhagat Singh on 23 March every year. In this lecture series, the college has invited in the past, speakers associated with the life and work of Shaheed Bhagat Singh. This year Padma Shri Jitender Singh Shunty was invited to motivate the students and staff of the college. Shri Jitender Singh is a Covid Worrier. He has been awarded Padma Shri in the category 'social work' for his relentless service for poor people for 25 years now and his contribution during COVID-19 by providing ambulances to ferry and cremate bodies.

Mr. Shunty shared that he was born in a poor family and lost his father at an early age. As a child, he witnessed multiple hardships and did odd jobs to make ends meet. In 1995, after his business picked up some momentum, Mr. Shunty started his own organisation 'Shaheed Bhagat Singh Sewa Dal'. The organisation was established with the objective of saving lives through promoting availability, accessibility and effectiveness of emergency services.

Talking about the idea behind serving people, Mr. Shunty said, “I am a follower of Bhagat Singh, who was executed at an age of 23. I belong to a (Sikh) community that believes in ‘sewa’ (service) and since childhood, we have heard, “Deh shiva bar mohe ihai, shubh karman te kabhun na taron, na doron ar syon jab jaye laron, nischay kar apni jeet karon” (O power of Akaal, give me this boon, may I never ever shirk from doing good deeds. That I shall not fear when I go into combat. And with determination I shall be victorious.)

Since the inception of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Sewa Dal, Mr. Shunty and his team have been taking care of the cremation of unclaimed bodies and those of poor people; providing ambulance service, mortuary box, hearse van. In the last 25 years, the team has cremated over 56,000 bodies.

The team stepped up even during the COVID-19 pandemic and worked for 18 hours at a stretch, given the enormity of the task at hand. In the last one and a half years of COVID-19, the team cremated 4,000 dead bodies. Talking about his motivation and the belief that kept him and his team going even when faced with extreme distress and disturbing circumstances, Mr. Shunty said, “People used to say that, ‘you will die while serving people. It’s an infectious disease, stay home.’ But our religion says, “Muhi marne ka chao hai, maro ta har ke duar” (I long to die; let me die at the Lord’s door.) I thought people are dying even at their homes so why not I continue with my service; I don’t mind dying at the cremation ground.”

To ensure the safety of his team and at the same time, assure that the COVID-19 warriors are at the top of their game, Mr. Shunty arranged for courses in first aid and dead body management for his frontline warriors.

Mr. Shunty said that the COVID-19 pandemic was an eye-opener for many as it showed the real face of people. Many found a family, a confidant in a stranger. While signing off, Mr. Shunty gave the message of preparing for the future and helping one and all. He said, During the pandemic, in many cases, even the family didn't come forward to perform the last rites. On contrary, strangers like you and me, came forward only to make us realize that everyone can be a protector. The one sitting on the borders, guarding the country, is not the sole protector.

While working on the frontlines, Mr. Shunty and his family tested positive for COVID-19 twice, he lost one of his ambulance drivers and even slept in a car, outside a cremation ground and sometimes in the parking area. But the passion to serve people kept the COVID-19 warrior and his team going.

With his inspiring and dedicated journey, he has motivated everyone to work for humanity selflessly. From the bottom of our hearts, we salute the covid warriors for there contribution in the fight of Covid-19. Their contribution will never be forgotten.

Sports Day

The college organized two-day 'Sports Fest 2K22' on 12-13 April 2022. It saw a massive participation of students from not only the college but from all over the University. The first day included of various competitions like long jump, 100m Race, 200m Race, Mix-Relay Race, Volleyball and Tug-of-war(s) etc. for boys, girls, and college staff. The competitions were held in three-phase trials, semi-final and finals. On the second day Padma Shree awardee Shri Yogeshwar Dutt was invited as Chief Guest. Sh. Feroz Khan, Honourable Chairman was also present at the event. Cultural dance performances were organized by the college to keep the participants and audience hooked. Shri Yogeshwar Dutt inspired the professors and students with his words of wisdom. Shri Dutt (born 2 November 1982) is an Indian freestyle wrestler. At the 2012 Summer Olympics, he won the bronze medal in the 60kg category. Shri Dutt was a Bronze Medallist in 2012 Olympics held at London. He was awarded the Padma Shri by the Government of India in 2013. He had won gold medals at the 2010 and the 2014 Commonwealth Games.

In his opening remarks, Shri Dutt described how he had been inspired by the dedication and commitment of Shaheed Bhagat Singh for the country. He urged the youth to think how their actions can help in the betterment of the nation and society regardless of the field they decide to pursue. He asked the youth to be honest towards their work and country and contribute to the nation's pride. He also emphasized on giving respect to parents, teachers and every creature. Hard work and passion are the key to success and winning and losing are part of life. One must always learn from one's failures, he said.

Following this, the Award Distribution Ceremony was conducted and winners were awarded with certificates, medals and cash prizes. The program marked a cheerful ending with DJ Night to rejuvenate all the participants and audiences.

Staff Farewell

Two of our beloved faculty members retired this year after long and distinguished service. Shri Sheo Dutt, Associate Professor, Department of History, retired on 31 August 2021 after decades of teaching experience. During this period he was elected twice as a member of the Academic Council, University of Delhi. His area of specialisation is Ancient History and he has authored many papers that have been published in academic journals and books. He also authored a book titled 'Aspects of Economic Condition of Eastern India'. Dr. Vijay Lata, Associate Professor, Department of Hindi, retired on 21 May 2022. Her specialisation is 'Medieval and Modern Literature' and her authored work 'Where Did She Go' was published in 2011. Letters authored by her have also been published in many magazines.

The contributions of Shri Sheo Dutt and Dr. Vijay Lata will be remembered and cherished.

College Departments

Department of Commerce

“Keep your face always toward the sunshine, and shadows will fall behind you.”

Under Teacher In-charge Mr. M.C. Sharma, Associate professor, and Convenor Mr. Sunil Kumar, Associate professor, VARICO - the Commerce Association of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College - organized an orientation on 7 March 2022. Being the first physical event at the campus after the pandemic, it brought much excitement and enthusiasm.

- The event was graced by the presence of Mrs. Priyanka Sharma, member of governing body, and all faculty members of the department. The guests enlightened the students with their encouraging words.
- For students to show off their potential, we held an extempore competition “Just a Minute” wherein they had to speak on a topic given on the spot for one minute and winners got exciting prizes. “A genuine leader is not a searcher for consensus but a molder of consensus.”
- The event came to an end with a vote of thanks presented by the senior most faculty Dr. S.K. Grover, Associate Professor, congratulating all the selected members of VARICO and winners of the competition.

UNNATI

The Commerce Department hosted its annual fest, UNNATI 2022 on 18, 19 April 2022.

- We saw tremendous participation of students from multiple colleges & universities, having a footfall of more than half a thousand students.
- Multiple activities took place to enhance the participants' managerial and marketing capabilities in a fun learning way.
- The fest began with inauguration on 18 April 2022, in the presence of Honourable Chief Guest Ms. Yashodhra Patil (Founder & CEO, Kidzopedia), Guest of Honour Mr. Shashi Mohan (Director, Entrepreneur Association of India) and Mr. Sandeep Singh (Director, Entrepreneur Association of India).
- Students of VARICO arranged the funds from the following sponsorship DU Circuit Updates, Ensemble, Frankfinn, ScoremyCV.com, University of Delhi Official, Diego Event and Turning stones.

Day 1

The first day witnessed a fun-filled evening with competitions. We had a participation of more than 300 students on this day.

- The first being “Corporate Art”, a thrilling competition where the participants were required to express their thoughts in the form of art based on the themes given to them.

- “Murder Mystery” where students were the Sherlock Holmes and had to solve a murder case given to them by using their analytical skills.
- “Animates” which involved intriguing puzzles, mind boggling quizzes and wherein participants had to have calculated and mathematical approaches to problems given to them.
- “Shark Tank” wherein participants brought new startup ideas and were judged and evaluated by our judges from the Entrepreneurs association of India.
- Roll ‘o’ Finance “How You Biddin 2.0” evaluated the participants’ bidding and negotiation skills.

Day 2

Day 2 witnessed more than 350 participations in various competitions.

- “Ad Mad” had students displaying their marketing skills and innovation by making advertisements using day to day products.
- “Mind’o Mystery” had students running across the college campus to find the hidden treasures and completing tasks given to them.
- “Investors Gambit”, which attracted the stock market maniacs and provided them a real world exposure of the bull and bear market
- “Corporate Recycling” wherein the participants had to show their creativity and turning waste materials into useful products.
- “Phoenix Rise From The Ashes”, the longest event of the fest had its finale in the evening which critically evaluated the participants’ managerial capabilities and prompt planning through multiple levels post which all the participants also created a short film to show their marketing skills.

Winners & Participants were felicitated in the closing ceremony followed by an Enchanting Band Performance.

The purpose of Annual Commerce Fest is to give maximum exposure, endless opportunities and competitive environment to the participants.

Not only does UNNATI help the students to learn and explore but also provided them a platform where they can build communication skill in addition to overall development.

The Commerce Department aspires to keep organizing such events in near future under the guidance faculty of commerce department.

Farewell for the Commerce batch of 2019-22 of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College was held on 6 May 2022 and was organised by VARICO under the Commerce Department.

The function started with a game called "Guess the Movie" where a music clip or dialogue was played and the audience had to guess the movie. Participants who gave the correct answers received small gifts. The function began with address of Principal Prof. S.K. Sinha, Teacher-in-charge Mr. M.C. Sharma, Mr. S.K. Grover and Convener Mr. Sunil Kumar. They congratulated the outgoing batch for successfully completing their graduation despite the problems they faced due to the pandemic and wished them good luck for their future endeavours.

Next was the ramp walk competition that witnessed a participation of over 50 students who came on the stage to perform. Some of them performed as couples. Out these, 12 were selected for the talent hunt round in which the participants were supposed to entertain the crowd and the judges with their hidden talent. Some impressed the crowd with their dancing skills, some with their acting and some with their beat-boxing talent.

The function concluded with the felicitation of winners by judges and senior teachers of the institution. The winners were also awarded different titles by the judges.

List of winners:

Ms. Farewell: Chehak

Mr. Farewell: Aman

Mr. Talented: Hardik

Ms. Talented: Kanchan

After the felicitation, students from the First and Second years shared their experience with their seniors and thanked them for their support. The teachers also shared their experience about the outgoing batch.

The event ended with a small DJ performance where all the students enjoyed to their fullest with their friends.

With this inspiring thought, the Office Bearers for the Session 2021-22 were felicitated with badges by the Chief Guest and the principal of the college

Lecture Series

The Department of Economics organized the FIRST EVENT in the 'Lecture Series on Contemporary Economic Issues', by Dr. Amit Soni (Associate Professor, SBSE) on the topic 'The Concept of Development with the reference to the Tokyo Olympics' on 2 October 2021. It immensely helped the students to understand the meaning of development under the capability approach.

The department organized a SECOND EVENT under which a lecture by Mr. Niraj Nirola (Assistant Professor, SBSE) on the topic 'Poverty measurement, debates and trends in India' was held on 22 November 2021. It provided students with a deeper understanding of the meaning of poverty and its measurement in India.

Further, the department organized a THIRD EVENT as a group discussion under which 'Discussion about expectations of Union Budget 2022-23' was held by the students of Macroeconomics. The event was held on 29 January 2022 and was chaired by Mr. Lakshmi Kant (Assistant Professor, SBSE). Many students participated in the group discussion and provided their opinion about the upcoming Union budget. The platform provided opportunities for students to apply the macroeconomic principles to solve current India's economic problems through the union budget.

The Economic department also organized the FOURTH EVENT. Under it, a lecture by Ms. Ruma Kumari (Assistant Professor, SBSE) was delivered on the topic 'Livelihood Diversification of Farm Households and Growing Importance of Non-Farm Sector' on 15 March 2022. It helped students get a deeper insight into livelihood diversification in rural areas and agriculture dynamics.

Ecobuzz 21-22

The Economics Society of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College successfully conducted their annual inter-college fest “EcoBuzz” on 12 January 2022. The event was graced by the presence of two external judges; Mr. Manavendra Prasad, Public Policy Advisor, and Dr. Jaweriah Hazrana, Assistant Professor at Christ University. The fest involved two major events.

The Undercover Economist:

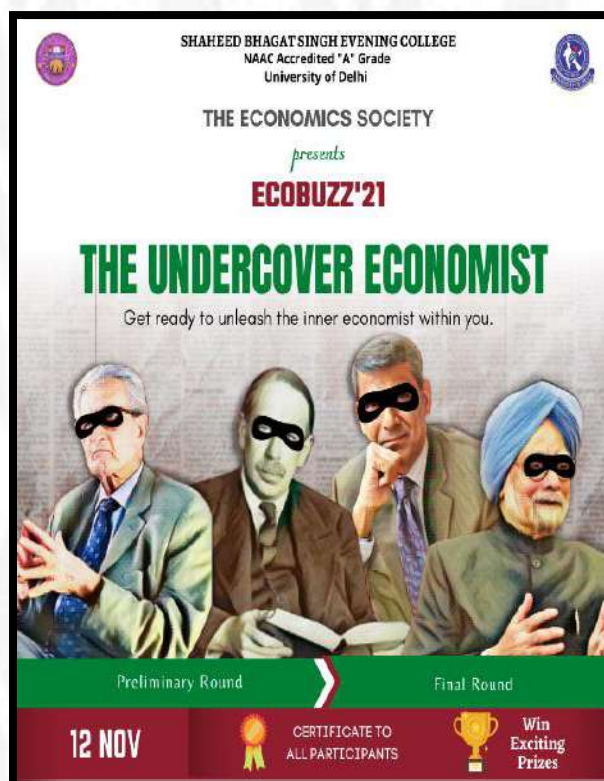

Participants were asked to take on the persona of a renowned economist. The prime objective of this event was to encourage the students to a different economic event with their vision in mind. This event was framed for students to better understand real-world economic issues and find solutions as they become an economist for a day. It consisted of two rounds.

Preliminary Round:

The first round was a quiz comprising 20 questions with a time limit of 20 minutes. The top 10 participants with maximum correct answers in the least time qualified for the next round.

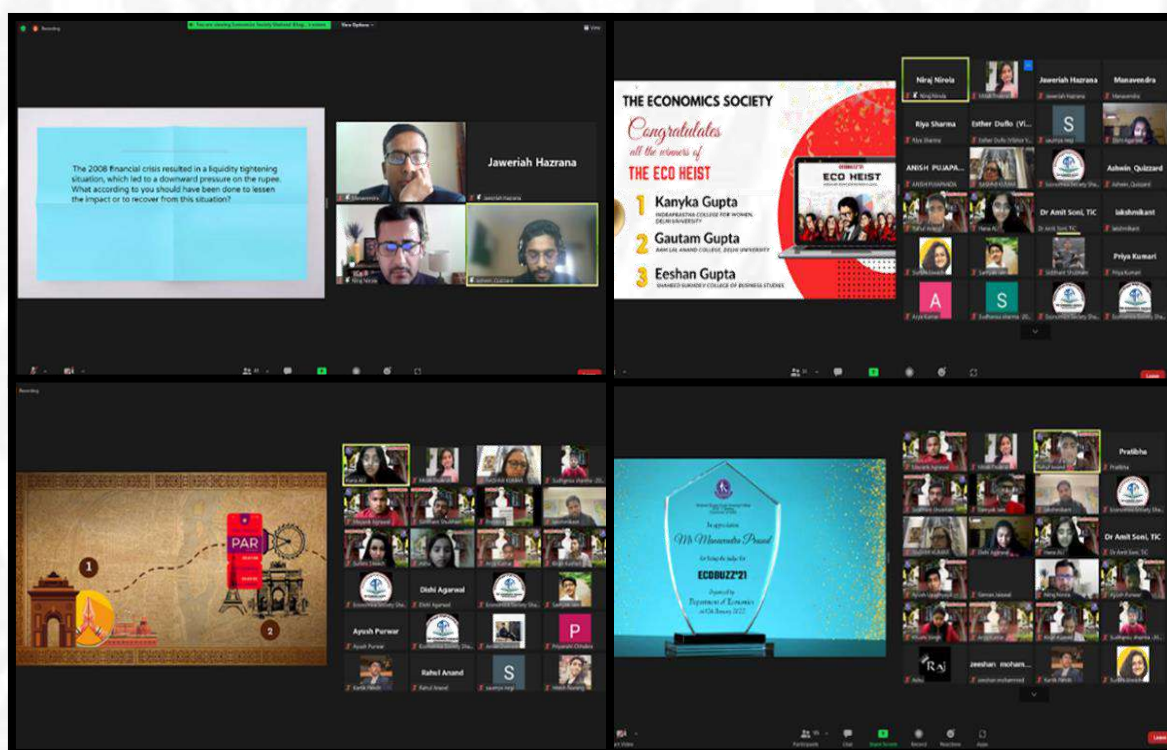

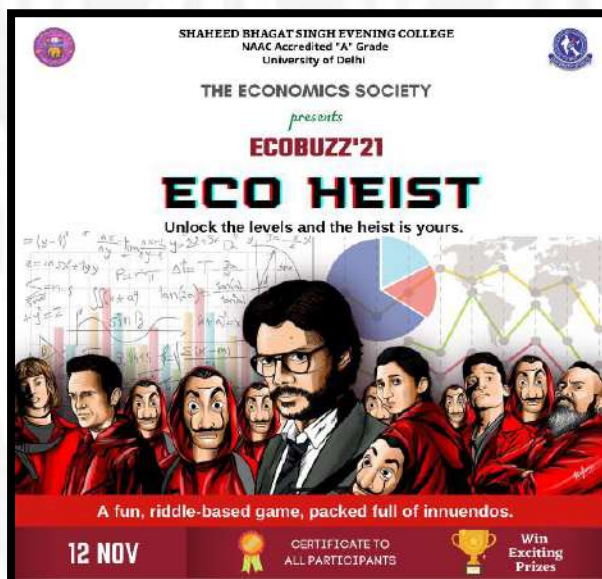

Main Round:

The top 10 participants who made it to the main round, were required to act as an economist they chose (out of the given list of economists), in accordance with the topic allotted to them.

Eco Heist

Eco Heist was a treasure hunt on the theme of “Money Heist” (a famous web series) in which the participants tried to progress through the various levels to reach the final showdown. Participants had to solve riddles to reach the succeeding riddle and the first participant to unlock the final riddle prevailed.

National Young Economists Conclave (NYEC) 2022

The Department of Economics, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College, organized the fifth edition of the National Young Economists Conclave (NYEC) on the 3-4 March 2022. The main objective of the conclave was to provide undergraduate students with a platform to showcase their research skills and analytical views on economic issues. Undergraduate students of all recognized universities and institutions across India are invited to submit original research papers and present them on the themes relevant to the conclave.

There were a total of 3 rounds – In the first round, the participants had to submit the abstract of their research paper. We received approximately 213 abstracts from all over India. The participants had to submit their full research papers for the second round. Based on the quality of the research paper, the participants got selected for the third, i.e., the final round of the conclave. After a rigorous selection round, only 43 articles were shortlisted for the final round. On 3 March, the selected participants presented their papers in digital mode in four technical sessions divided into four different broad topics. Each technical session was chaired by an external and an internal resource person. Details are as follows:

Technical Session	Chair	Co-Chair

Department of Geography

During the academic year 2021-22, the Department of Geography, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College, University of Delhi had many remarkable feats. The Department of Geography staff and students undertook multiple activities and achieved great success and recognition- not only within the college but at the university as well. Some of the major highlights includes:

1. Educational Trip- Field work and research trip was organised for the second year students. Two groups were formed, consisting 69 students collectively. First group toured Dhorimana, Barmer Rajasthan from 5 March to 12 March. Second group toured Solang valley, Kullu, Himachal Pradesh from 17 to 23 March with the concerned field trip subject Socio-economic condition of these areas etc. For the final year students, disaster management studies trip, three groups were formed, consisting 105 students collectively. First group toured Chamoli, Rudraprayag, Tehri and adjacent districts of Uttarakhand from 28 February to 6 March. Second group toured Srinagar from 28 February to 2 March. And the final group toured Rudraprayag district of Uttarakhand from 26 March to 31 March with the concerned disaster subject being the flood, landslides, etc.

2. Shristi-2021-2022- Shristi is the annual departmental fest of Geography which is held every year. This is too it was organized on two distinctive dates on 22 and 23 April 2022. There were various activities organized like Nukkad Natak, Treasure hunt, Slogan writing etc. The annual magazine Ankur was also launched at this event. On this occasion, two informative lectures were also organised. On 22 April, Prof. Vinay Kumar Rao (Chairperson, Northeast Centre, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi) gave his lecture on the topic "North-east India: Landscape, atmosphere and its multi-dimensional effects". On 23 April Prof. Jayanti Kumar Tripathi (School of Environmental Sciences, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi) gave his lecture on the topic "Anthropocene- the Geological time of human's influences".

3. Fresher's Welcome- The fresher's party for first year was organized on 9 March 2022. The party was filled with so much of love, light, fun, warmth, music, dance and food. The party was a successful one as it was a good opportunity to interact with new-comers.

4. Departmental Seminar- Heather J. McAfee, Professor of Geography Department and Chair, Clark College of the USA joined virtually for the departmental seminar through Google-meet on 23 October 2021. It was an informative seminar as she gave information about the “Beyond Covid: A time & place for Geography” and gave the direction how to apply GIS in covid times. Students were highly enriched by this webinar especially those who were enthusiastic to pursue studies abroad.

An informative webinar was organised on the topic "Human history and evolution", the lecture was delivered by Prof. S. T. Janetius (Principal, St. John College, Nagaland) on 9 October 2021 (Saturday) at 12 noon. Another webinar was organised on "Gender equity for Sustainable development", the lecture was delivered by Dr. Phu Doma Lama (Lund University, Sweden) on 12 October 2021 (Tuesday).

Department of History

The Department of History is enhanced by a competent and dedicated faculty that always tries to engage students with the discipline in diverse ways. The Department under the supervision and guidance of faculty members organized various academic activities during every session. Each faculty member of the Department is an expert in different areas of research within the History discipline (Ancient, Medieval, Modern and World) which provides diverse knowledge to the students. The History Society was reorganized under the name “Yugabd” and a History Association Committee was formed consisting of a 10 members core team (President, Vice-President, Secretary, Joint Secretary, Treasurer and five Executive members).

In the previous year (2021-22) the Department of History organised several activities in the college:

- Many issues (e.g., Managing offline classes, NAAC Report, Webinars/ Seminars, Walks) regarding the activities and educational progress of the course were discussed under the aegis of the Departmental In charge Ms. Charu Mittal.
- The History society (Yugabd) organised virtual audition to select new volunteers and added 15 new members in the team of The History Society.
- The Department of History Organised a Webinar Titled “Writing History Through the Prism of Environment” By Prof. Mayank Kumar (Eminent Historian) on 12 August 2021. (Participants - 100 on Google meet and 450 on YouTube).

Winning Poems of Polit-Ó-Matic

माँ तुम आओगी ना

मैं पैदा हुई जब
आँखों से आसूँ बहे थे ना
लड़की हुई है... उदासी से
यह वाक्य कहा था ना
और मुझसे ऊपर हमेशा
भाई रहा था ना

उसका पुराना खिलौना
मुझे दिया गया था ना
हमेशा मुझे
फिजूल लिया गया था ना
ज़माने से थक गई हूँ
मुझे फांसी पर लटकाओगी ना
माँ मेरे मरने पर तो
तुम आओगी ना

मेरी पढ़ाई छोड़ कर
शादी कराई थी ना
घर से ना भाग जाए इज़्ज़त घर
की
इसी बात से घबराई थी ना
आज़ादी कभी मिली नहीं
बंदिशों में ज़िंदगी गुज़ारी थी ना
तुमने एक पल में पराया कर दिया
माँ बेटी तो तुम्हारी थी ना

एक वहशी दरिंदे के हाथ
मुझे सौंप दिया ना
अपनी औलाद का खुद
गला घोंट दिया ना
मेरी आज़ादी का जश्न
मनाओगी ना
माँ तुम मेरे मरने पर तो
आओगी ना

कमर पर नीली स्याही
का वो ठप्पा देख पाओगी ना
यह उंगलियां कुछ जली सी हैं
दवा इन पर लगाओगी ना
यह सब चुप रह कर सहा है
अब तो मुझे शेरनी बुलाओगी ना

पापा से बहुत छुपा लिया
इस बार तो सब बताओगी ना
सच बताना माँ
भाभी को यूँ नहीं सताओगी ना
जब मेरी नज़र का धागा किसी
खूंटो पर लटका मिलेगा
उस दिन तो अफसोस जताओगी
ना
मेरे मरने पर तो आओगी ना

सुर के सृजन

हमें ना चाहिए कोई दर्पण,
ना सहानुभूति का कतरा अर्पण।
बस तुम घृणा का ना हमें पात्र समझो,
ना पाप न कोई श्राप समझो।

हम भी सुर के सृजन हैं
तुम्हारे ही अभिन्न परिजन हैं।
कला और गायन के होते हम अधिष्ठात्री,
फिर भी छाए रहते हम पे सदैव अमावस की रात्रि।
कुल, धर्म, मोह, वस्त्र, अंग इसके ना हम पराधीन हैं, अगर जानना
हमारी गंधर्व तो आज भी वायु पुराण में लीन है।।

अर्जुन के प्राण संजीवनी से भीष्म के संहार तक,
धर्म के विजय पताका को हमने गिरने न दिया।
सहस्रों शब्द भेदी बाण छाती पे सह कर भी,
अपने अविभक्त होने की मर्यादा झुकने न दिया।

हे जगतपालक ! तृण नोकों सी हीं हमें भी जीने का अधिकार दो, अगर न दे सको कुछ तो ईर्ष्या का न अंगार दो।
प्रभु! इस क्षणभंगुर संसार से हमें वार दो, ये भी हो संभव नहीं तो हमें मार दो।

आज़ादी

मैं अक्सर किताबों से बातें करती हूँ,
माँ कहती है किताबों के पास सारे प्रश्नों के उत्तर हैं,
इसलिए, आज मैं एक किताब से आज़ादी के बारे में पूछ रही हूँ क्योंकि

मेरी आज़ादी सूरज के साथ उठती है,
और सूरज के ढलते ही सो जाती है,
मेरी आज़ादी बहुत ही संस्कारी है।

मेरी आज़ादी किचन में बर्तनों से लड़कर खूब शोर मचाती है,
और भैया के बस्ते में चुपचाप बंद हो, खामोशी से स्कूल पढ़ने जाती है।

मेरी आज़ादी महीने में पाँच दिन घायल रहती है,
ना मटके से पानी निकालती है, ना अचार की बरनी छूती है,
और ना ही छत पर पापड़ सुखाती है,
मेरी आज़ादी पाँच दिन के लिए नास्तिक हो जाती है,
मेरी आज़ादी मेडिकल स्टोरों से काली पन्नियों में कैद कर के घर लायी
जाती है।

मेरी आज़ादी, "अरे इसकी पढ़ाई में इतना पैसा नहीं लगा सकते, इसकी
शादी भी तो करनी है" जैसे वाक्यों के बीच घुट कर रोज़ मर जाती है।
मेरी आज़ादी 'ये लड़कों की तरह ज़ोर से क्यों हँसती हो और दोनों पैरों को
मोड़कर बैठ नहीं सकती क्या' जैसे वाक्यों के साये में जिंदगी बिताती है,

मेरी आज़ादी, आज़ाद होने को कसमसाती है।
मेरी आज़ादी ज़्यादा आज़ाद हो जाए तो समाज को चोट पहुँचाती है,
मेरी आज़ादी बुर्का और घूँघट की बेड़ियों में जकड़ी ना जाने क्यों सबको
आज़ादी सी नज़र आती है!

मैं फिर किताब से पूछती हूँ, क्या हम वाकई आज़ाद हो गए हैं ?
"हाँ, 1947 में" किताब झिझककर कहती है और मैं चुप्पी साध लेती हूँ ।

B.A. Programme Association

The BA Programme Association of SBSEC has been formed to provide the students a platform for literary, aesthetic, and intellectual enrichment. It encourages them to explore a range of ideas, values and human expressions. It also helps them shape their interpersonal, organizational, and communication skills beyond the classroom through various activities throughout the year.

The session "2021-2022" marked a proactive and exciting year for the B.A. Programme Association. Under the convenorship of Mr. Sarad Kumar Yadav, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, the BA Programme Association organized a spectrum of events and activities.

Launched Annual Magazine 'NAYI PAHAL' on 10 November 2021

On 10 November 2021, the association launched the first edition of its magazine, NAYI PAHAL. The name stands for new opportunities, new hopes and new creative ideas. Teachers from different departments and students share their informative articles, poems, beautiful art work and college memories as pictures for the magazine. The magazine was launched for the sessions 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 due to the pandemic under the able guidance of the president of the association Arun Yadav and Lata Bhatt and the editorial team of Tej Prakash and Soni Singh.

Heritage Walk at Red Fort

Under the aegis of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Association organised a heritage visit 'History Walk' on 10 November 2021, in collaboration with the history department of the College. The chief guest of the event was Anas Khan, founder of Unzip Delhi and a prominent history walk organiser in Delhi. More than 40 students from all over Delhi University, along with professors, became part of this heritage walk. It was a very interactive, knowledgeable, and memorable heritage walk.

Constitution Day & Organised Quiz Competition

The Association organised a quiz competition "Gyan Sanvidhan Ka" on 26 November 2021 to celebrate National Constitution Day in collaboration with Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College. Students from all over India participated in this event and showed their competitive skills and enthusiasm throughout the event. The winners were: first position, Vivek Raj (Bagalpur, Bihar), second position; Abhishek Halder (Kolkata), third position; Akshay Anand (Hazipur, Bihar).

Orientation and Fresher's programme 'आगमन-2021'

The Association organised the official Orientation and Freshers programme 'आगमन-2021' for the batch 2021-2024 on 5 December 2021. It was organised virtually. The event was very exciting. Different competitions like singing, dancing, stand-up comedy, poster-making, ramp walk, and a very interesting game called "Truth and Dare" were conducted at this event. The freshers participated and performed very well throughout the event. The event was very interactive and knowledgeable. The freshers interacted with their teachers and seniors and came up with the solutions to their doubts regarding college life.

OBC Cell

OBC Cell, SBSEC, proactively participated in the Admission process of 2021-2022. It ensured that every guideline and due procedure laid down by the University of Delhi in this regard was practiced and followed.

On 9 March 2022, the Cell organized an academic trip to Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium, Delhi, to watch 'Baba Saheb', a grand musical play based on the life of the Father of the Indian Constitution and Bharat Ratan Dr BR Ambedkar. This trip was planned to sensitise the students and inculcate right values for higher education.

Convenor Dr. Kavita Yadav accompanied the group of students with Dr. Chhavi Sharma, Dr. Versha, Ms. Seema Choudhary, Ms. Trishala, Mr. Mohd. Ehtesham and Mr. Ajay Tiwari from the college fraternity.

Sandhyalok: College Magazine Committee

The College Magazine Committee is entrusted with Sandhyalok, the annual publication, which showcases, the institutions grandeur, through the prism of its contributors. Every year, the committee works steadfastly in reviewing, compiling, and representing the diverse inputs which are shared by both students and faculty members. Through this publication, the college's academic endeavours, department specific updates, and societal activities, are among the many aspects which are given expression. It is particularly heartening to note the sustained involvement in the creative, visual, and artistic talents of students and faculty alike.

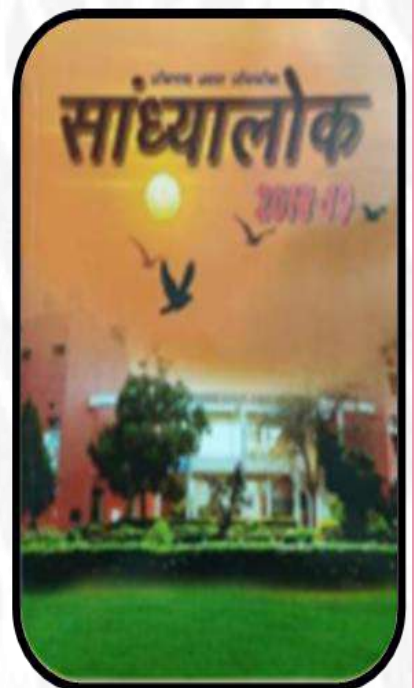

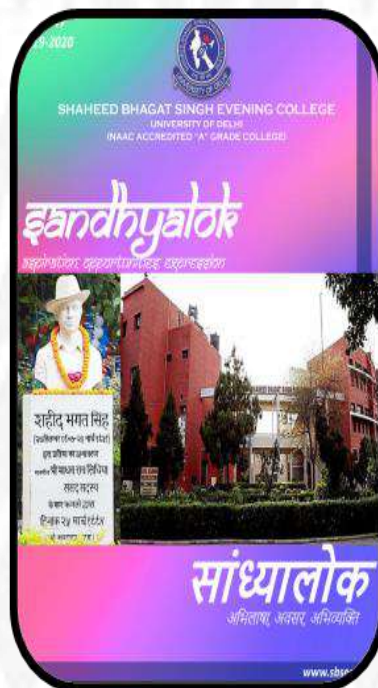

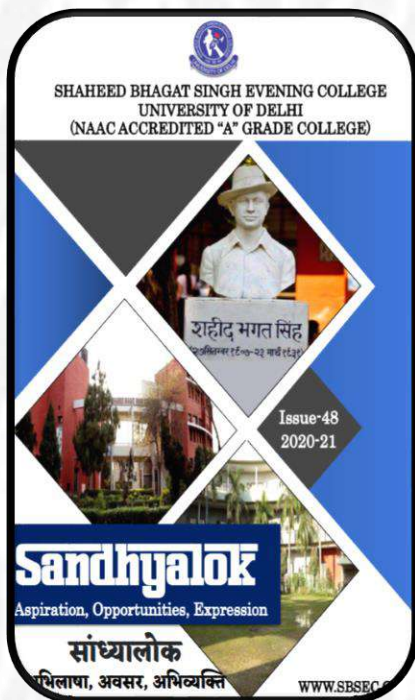

It is of particular commendation, that despite the difficult circumstances surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic since 2020, the committee has successfully released its magazine, in the avatar of a e-publication. As with every year, the enthusiasm, and interest displayed by the contributors, is overwhelming. To those interested in contributing in future editions of the magazine, can send their original and unpublished works to sandhyalok.magazine@sbse.du.ac.in.

The Magazine includes detailed reports of departments and societies and their various pursuits along with creative inputs from students and teachers in one volume. The magazine with separate Hindi and English sections, art works, as well as an elaborate photo gallery offers glimpses from the vibrant, creative and cultural atmosphere of the college which continued in full swing even in online mode during the pandemic. Over the successive years our unique college magazine has been well received by the faculty and students.

For the year 2021-22 Issue 49, the College Magazine Committee was headed by its convenor Dr. Suman Yadav and the following members in the editorial board- Ms. Nidhi Lakhotra, Dr. Ranjeet Kumar, Ms. Kirti Singh, Mr. Saurabh Dubey, Mrs. Ankita Shree, Dr. Manjari Gupta, Ms. Pooja Sharma, Dr. Gaurav Nain, Mr. Rajan, Dr. Manish Kumar and Mr. Ghanshyam Chand Yadav.

The committee has also been ably supported through a strong technical and creative support team led by students, including- Mr. Kartik Kanojia and Ms. Sakshi Suri and Mo. Farzeen Rais.

Creador: The Fine Arts Society

Art is something that makes you breathe with a different kind of happiness. Art is an idea that has found its perfect form. A piece of art that speaks to you can open windows in a room; you hadn't even known it was dark!

Creador, the Fine Arts Society of the College, provides a platform to all its members to express their talents in the field of fine arts which otherwise would have remained hidden. The aim is to bring together people who have creative insight and want to explore, how they can push their own limits.

The Core members for the Academic Session 2021-22 were:

1. Sourav, President
2. Ashwini Bhatt, Vice President
3. Abhinav, Secretary
4. Arjun Rajput, Joint Secretary
5. Riya Garg, Coordinator
6. Mansi Arya, IT Head
7. Prachi Jangir, Content Head

Talent Hunt in the form of auditions was organised at the commencement of the academic session to explore the budding artists and to add more glitters in the society.

Creador, organised its two-day Annual Art Fest “ART-E-VOUS’22” on 7 and 8 of April to honour the skills of artists. On 7 April, the society held four inter-college competitions:

- Inkreation (Tattoo making)
- Doodle Dash (Doodling)
- Brush Tales (Poster Making)
- Rangsaaz (Rangoli Making)

20 colleges across Delhi University participated in the event. The event was grand success. 8 April was the second day of the annual fest of the society. On 8 April, the society organised its annual sale-cum-exhibition. Beautiful artworks made by students were on display. The exhibition brought out latent skills of students. The beautiful paintings and artwork left the spectators mesmerized. The venue, “Evening Block gallery” was transformed into a colourful art gallery with handpicked paintings of the members. The members decorated the centre of the evening block with a bright and mesmerizing rangoli which was admired and acknowledged by all the faculty members. Exhibits were prepared and designed under guidance of Dr. Viney Narang. The exhibition gave vent to imagination of students. It brought out latent skills of members.

One of the members, Sourav, started his own Instagram channel resin__crafter where he makes beautiful artwork with resin. Furthermore, Riya Garg started a platform on Instagram “planters_destiny” as a small business. All the members have been actively refining their art skills and joining various platforms where they can display it.

The members also participated in various competitions at Miranda House, Indraprastha College, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College etc. and secured participation certificates for the same. Furthermore, the society participated in every event organised by the college & contributed in the form of decoration of the venue. The society worked under the supervision of Convenor Prof. C.S. Dubey and Co-Convenor Dr. Viney Narang. The undivided support from the teachers helped the students to showcase their talent in various ways.

Enactus

The Enactus, Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College (SBSEC), aim to contribute our every bit towards the welfare of the society and help it develop and nurture. The main motive is to uplift the weaker sections of the society and at the same time develop entrepreneurship skills within the students, to make them Social Entrepreneurs. It is convened by Mr. Vinod J. Kaul and Co-convened Ms. Ritika Chaudhary who are nurturing this society with leadership skills, hard work and vision. Enactus bagged the Grant of Rs. 50,000 from KPMG Company for the Project PACE at the national level. This is the second time in four years that the ENACTUS team has bagged the national grant for Rs. 50,000. The student office bearers included- President: Kanchan Sherawat, Vice President: Ansh Gumber, Secretary: Khushi Bhadouria, Treasurer: Aayush Kumar, Project Heads: Ishita Vaishista, Pratiksha Yadav. There are currently 45 Members in the team.

Enactus conducted the following events throughout the year:

1. Drive Abhinandan

This Diwali, Enactus SBSEC organised a donation drive 'Abhinandan' in which the members of Enactus SBSEC donated clothes to needy ones and promoted the idea of "Shop Local, Spend Local, Enjoy Local & Eat Local" to promote the goal of Atmanirbhar Bharat.

2. Udyog

Enactus SBSEC took an initiative and organized an entrepreneurial project presentation meet where students had to use their vivid creativity and combine them with practical start-up ideas to create a perfect business plan. Project Aanchal and Project Pace were chosen as these two projects they fulfilled the United Nations- Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and were also innovative.

❖ Project Aanchal

Project Aanchal aims to empower local social entrepreneurs who make handmade products but do not have market and access to merchandise where they can sell their handmade products and earn their living therefore Project Aanchal will encourage small social entrepreneurs including women where they can keep making their handmade products and we are going to sell their products on their behalf which will help them get the customer they are seeking and currently Enactus is in conversation with the community of Sunder Rang Crafts Centre Village Chandelao, Jodhpur and Khadi Organisation, Bhopal. In Project Aanchal, Enactus SBSEC has fostered many in past years will foster their handmade products and will act as an intermediary in which we will reach the audience they want to target through E-retail. The aim is not only to sell their output for them but to teach them how they can set up their own market online.

❖ Project Pace

Project Pace is a step towards sustainable development. In this project Enactus will up-cycle the discarded footwear and refurbish them into a new footwear such as chappals and flip-flops and E-retail them on the internet through social media. The Project aims to reduce the amount of rubber waste generated by footwear waste these days people are more likely to buy new footwear instead of getting mend it by the cobblers and that discarded shoes end up in landfills polluting our environment. Project pace wants to create an impact, work towards the sustainable development helping cobblers so that they can regain their living by providing them job and work for the betterment of the future.

3. Orientation

“Together we pledge to act. Together we are Enactus”. Enactus SBSEC organised Orientation for the new recruitments and freshers which was conducted on 19 December to educate them about what Enactus means, it’s working and its projects. The speakers for the session were:

Drishti Kharbanda - A social entrepreneur and activist. Founder of all women run organisation named “Sarvani” and Women Made Craft (WMC). She runs a free school for 120 children named Sarvani Pathshala. She has been featured by Republic TV, Zee Network, News laundry and Red FM for her contribution to societal welfare and causes.

Ibadat Jishtu - National Program Manager, Enactus India

Harsh Mittal - Founder and Former President, Enactus SBSEC

Aryan Huria - General Secretary, Project Director- Ahsaas at Enactus Hansraj

Manisha Dudi - Former Project Head, Enactus Miranda House

4. Annual Event- Aurora’22

Enactus conducted its annual event- Aurora on 20 April 2022. Aurora is a platform that aims to encourage the confluence of thoughts, ideas and creativity among our participants that will help them apply their analytical and ingenious skills and make decisions in activities that will give them a taste of the corporate world. The event addressed all the members of society putting their heart and soul to think, strategize and plan the event and the competition under it. The students from top elite colleges like IIT, IIMs and top DU colleges also shown a good interest in our event and participated with great enthusiasm making it a great success.

Under the annual event, the society had conducted the following competitions:

- ❖ Inside Corporate: Inside Corporate is thrilling and mind-bending competition to provide students an insight of what it feels and how things work inside the corporate world. They’ll be the managers, taking decisions, leveraging money, and trying to stay afloat. The teams had gone through a preliminary round which was quiz based. They were asked to answer gripping, riveting and concept-based questions and out of total teams registered 8 teams with the highest score lead the way for the finals.

❖ Ace The Case

This B-plan competition was an alluring opportunity to showcase participants' potential, problem solving and creativity. It invited students to think strategically and stretch their analytical skills to solve social problems with the help of a project or a business idea. Teams had gone through a preliminary round. In this round, teams were assigned a UN Sustainable Development Goal based on which they were asked to present a project incorporating the solution in form of a reel or a short video. Teams selected in the preliminary rounds, were asked to present their comprehensive project presentation on the day of finals. The competition was judged by Shri M.C. Sharma and Dr. S.K. Grover.

❖ Treasure Hunt

The team of three competed in a fun and engaging game that required them to utilise their analytical and inquisitive talents to find hidden clues by following a trail of mind-boggling riddles and clues throughout the college campus.

Finance And Investment Cell

The Finance and Investment Cell (FIC) was founded in the academic year 2019-20 to broaden students' awareness about the vast world of finance and to provide them a pathway to find solutions to real-world business problems. The cell organises numerous lectures, competitions, events, rigorous research sessions, and more to give a shared platform for all finance lovers. Its goal is to get college students more involved in various financial matters in order to help them become reasonable investors in an increasingly international market. The cell is active on all social media sites, including Instagram, Facebook, and LinkedIn, in order to reach out to students. The team worked under the guidance of Teacher-in-Charge, Sh. M.C. Sharma, Convener, Sh. Vinod J. Kaul, and Co-Convener Dr. Aditi Goel. The motto of the FIC is to boost the interest of students in finance as an academic discipline and also to promote it as a career option for them. With the aforementioned motto, the cell strives to create awareness, through vigorous participation, for various investment options that, indeed, hone one's skills and expertise.

Following Activities Were Performed in the Session 2021-22

❖ Workshop on “Investment in Stock market for beginners”

The cell hosted a workshop on the topic, "Investment in Stock market for beginners" on 29 April 2022, in the seminar room. Sh. M.C. Sharma, Associate professor, Alumnus of IIM Indore, NISM Certified in security Market Foundation, presided over the webinar as the speaker and chief guest for the session. The webinar started with Senior Prof. S.K. Grover sir's exuberant speech, followed by the presence and few words from our honourable principal. The event was also graced by the IFDA team that also interacted with the attendees. There was a healthy discussion concerning the opportunities and risk of stock market in the public market – what should be a beginner's approach for investment and analysis in the market. The students diligently took part in the discussion. Sh. M.C. Sharma sir shared his valuable experience of years with the students. The event was a great success with around 60 students actively participating and over 110 registrations. In the end, feedback forms were circulated, fetching appreciative responses.

❖ How You Biddin 2.0

On 19 April 2022 the cell hosted How You Biddin 2.0 as our second flagship event for the year. The competition witnessed about 120 participants. It took place in three phases. This event witnessed cutthroat bidding by the owners of different teams for their favourite players. Kartik Keswani, Shashank Chaurasia, Yash Sharma, Harsh Kumar from Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College were the winners.

❖ Roll O' Finance

The cell, on 18 April 2022, hosted an exotic fusion of a human board game paired up with Finance, pinch of dares to challenge students to use their wit and portray their decision-making skills, to find out whether they would lower their stakes or invest more. Devansh, Piyush Mishra, Devansh Tomar and Atharva from Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College were the winners.

❖ Webinar by Mr. Nishank Bhatia in collaboration with E-Cell

The cell, in partnership with E-Cell, SBSEC, hosted a webinar on "How To Bootstrap Your Startup" on 15 September 2021. The webinar's Guest Speaker was Mr. Nishank Bhatia, a business influencer, growth strategist, and consultant. We had a lengthy conversation about how someone with a business concept might begin and succeed in this Unicorn-Rich Indian Economy.

❖ Workshop on “Trading in Stock Market”

The cell hosted a workshop on the topic, "Introduction to Trading" on 8 April 2022, in the seminar room. Sh. M.C. Sharma, Associate Professor, Alumnus of IIM Indore, NISM Certified in security Market Foundation, presided over the webinar as the speaker for the session. The webinar started with Principal Prof. S.K. Sinha sir’s exuberant speech. Thereafter, there was a healthy discussion concerning the undervalued and overvalued stocks in the public market – so you never overpay, ways to identify value stocks using top-down and bottom-up approaches, and the concept of candlesticks. The teachers actively participated by asking various questions. On top of that, the students diligently took part in the discussion. The event was a great success with around 80 students actively participating in the event, with over 180 registrations. In the end feedback forms were distributed with pleasing responses in return.

❖ Webinar on “Alternative Finance & Crowd Funding”

The cell hosted a webinar on the topic of "Alternative Finance & Crowd Funding" on 7 August 2021. Mr. Nakul Garg, Co-Founder of CrowdInvest, Alumnus of London School of Economics and our own college presided over the webinar as the Guest Speaker. We had a lengthy talk about how a person with a start-up idea might get funds through crowdsourcing, as well as how alternative finance can be really beneficial when used correctly. A total of 150 students attended the webinar.

❖ Knowledge Book

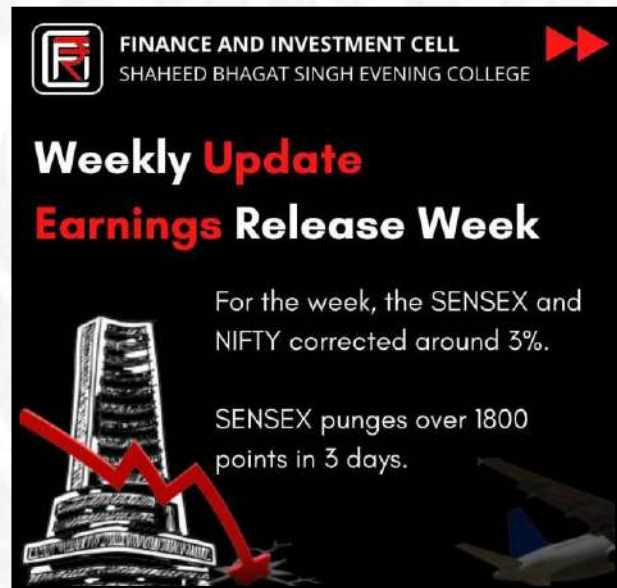

FIC's own compact finance dictionary is the Knowledge Book. The members have conducted research on a variety of finance and investment-related issues and written articles that explain them in the most straightforward manner feasible. This book explains financial markets, fixed income securities, financial management, and other topics.

❖ Weekly Sessions

Every week, members of the cell hold a session during which they undertake research on a specific topic and prepare a presentation to enlighten other members about it. To research for such topic and presentation, members are usually divided into two groups of two. Some of the topics that were covered in the sessions were:

- Financial Markets
- Bond Market
- Personal Finance
- Alternative Finance
- Mutual Funds
- Cryptocurrency
- Index Funds
- Equity Financing
- FD's and Pension

❖ Instagram Series

The following five series are posted weekly on FIC's Instagram handle which provides a quick and to-the-point explanation of financial concepts and recent industry developments.

- Tuesday Tips: Tuesday tips enhance one's skills to invest while providing useful tips to invest wisely in the stock market.

Shaheed Bhagat Singh College was one of the very first colleges in the University of Delhi to enroll under National Cadet Corps. It all started in 1980s. and the very first mile stone 1SBS Coy. achieved was the commissioning of Brig. Neeraj Sharma in Officers Training Academy in 1991. After that 1SBS Coy. had a history of giving many officers to Indian Army, CISF, BSF, CRPF, ITBP and other armed forces and officials in government departments. Many of our alumni are working as higher govt. officials in various central and state services. The glory of 1SBS Coy. can be traced by stating that every camp and activity in NCC has been accomplished by the cadets of 1SBS Coy. From 2010 till now we have 4-Director General Commendations, 7 Youth Exchange Programs, more than 53 Republic Day Camp and 20 Thal Sainik Camp.

International Yoga Day

Date: 21 June 2021

- ❖ Yoga is the journey of discovering the self. It is an ancient and beautiful practice that is linked to all aspects, i.e., physical, spiritual, and mental. It calms and relaxes your body and soul.
- ❖ It is not just a physical exercise where the person twists, turns, stretches, and breathes but is also a complex exercise linked to the betterment of the overall metabolism of the humans.
- ❖ By mastering the postures of yoga, one can develop a healthy mind, soul, and a beautiful heart. Through regular practice, one can develop immunity and flexibility as well.
- ❖ Hence, to attain the perfectionism in their postures and the betterment of their body, NSS volunteers came forward to practice a few postures of yoga to enhance their thoughts and shift from a toxic lifestyle to a healthy and balanced one.

- ❖ Shri Nikil Yadav, who is a nominated member of the Indian Yoga Association, Delhi chapter and coordinator of youth program ‘Young India: Know Thyself’, addressed the attendees and spoke about the significance of Ashtanga Yoga and the Five Niyamas of Yoga for a clean soul. His words filled the attendees with energy, power, and confidence.
- ❖ Q&A session was conducted in the end to address the doubts of individuals. The event turned out to be an immense accomplishment that the unit is proud of.

Mission Save Humanity

Date: 25 April – 28 May 2021

- NSS volunteers of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College helped hundreds of people during Covid-19 in Delhi-NCR
- In the covid era when people were looking for oxygen cylinders, hospital beds, ventilators, Covid related medicines, at that testing time, the NSS Unit of SBSEC worked day and night to save and conserve humanity.
- Understanding the situations of Covid-19, the NSS volunteers of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College (University of Delhi) started a campaign ‘Mission Save Humanity’ under the leadership of current President of NSS unite Hrithik Saw. Under this campaign they provided verified sources of oxygen cylinders, hospital beds, ventilator beds, ICU beds, doctors numbers, ambulances services, and other important Covid related amenities. They also provided free foods services to Covid-affected people and their relatives.
- More than 20 NSS volunteers worked for more than 13-14 hours each day to gather and disseminate relief material.
- In 30 days of this long mission, volunteers helped more than 700 Covid affected people in Delhi-NCR region. Volunteers used social media platforms like Instagram, Twitter, Facebook, and WhatsApp for this.

- ❖ NSS and its team believe that in the face of this global adversity healthcare and frontline workers have been silently standing as the first line of defence. They are the wall of protecting and preserving every life. So, it is our duty to use our youth power and help people in need.
- ❖ For this initiative, volunteers also received many thanksgiving calls, messages, and support.

Nationwide Plantation Drive

Date: 22 – 23 January 2022

The NSS unit organised a nationwide plantation drive on 22 and 23 January 2022 in collaboration with Abhyudaya, IIT Bombay. This campaign was named as ‘Grow Green Gold’. This campaign was successfully launched under the supervision of Green India Initiative, Green Yatra Foundation. More than 50 volunteers of the NSS unit planted trees. The pictures of tree plantation near college campus and at volunteers' respective homes were shared with IIT Bombay. The participants also received certificates of appreciation.

52nd NSS Day

Date: 24 September 2021

- ❖ On the auspicious occasion of NSS Day, globally celebrated on 24 September each year, the National Service Scheme Unit of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College, organized an event on the theme 'Youth and Nation Building' to inculcate the social welfare values in students.
- ❖ It took place in two divisions - one was the online speech competition and live interaction with the NSS volunteers; the second was a poster making and a poem-writing competition on the theme 'Youth and Nation Building'. The event received response from more than 100 students from various colleges, who were thrilled to take part and show case their love and passion. The online speech competition was stupendous and clearly portrayed patriotism among the volunteers. The poster-making and poem-writing competitions were held online wherein the participants designed posters or wrote poems relating to the theme. The event ended with the live interactive session where volunteers discussed their two-year journey with NSS and showcased their achievements. The event turned out great with an entertaining and interactive audience.

National Voter's Day Celebration

Date: 25 January 2022

On 25 January, the NSS unit celebrated the 12th anniversary of National Voters Day with the aim to empower young and future voters. To mark the occasion, the NSS volunteers also took voter's pledge in the presence of Principal Prof S.K. Sinha. The program started at 11 A.M., Prof. S.K. Bandooni, Program Officer, National Service Scheme (SBSEC, DU) welcomed the teaching and non-teaching staff and students of the college. In his speech, he highlighted the significance of the voters' day and the history of voters' day. He highlighted that the purpose of the celebration is to inculcate constitutional obligations and to encourage staff and students to exercise their vote. The celebration took place under the guidance of student coordinator Dr. Juhi Priyanka Horo and Dr. Kiran Jatav. The main objective behind the celebration was to encourage, facilitate, and maximise enrolment, especially for new voters. The NSS unit also conducted two Inter-College competitions - Declamation Competition and Slogan Writing Competition. Both were planned, managed, and organised under the leadership of Hrithik Saw and Pranjul Tyagi, campus ambassador for Delhi Electoral Commission CEO Delhi.

Declamation Competition

The ceremony began with the declamation contest which was hosted by Pranjul and Prathna and adjudicated by Dr. Gaurav Nain, faculty of Geography department from Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College. In this competition, more than 30 participants from all over Delhi and its neighbouring colleges participated. The topic for the contest was 'Making Elections Inclusive, Accessible and Participative'. Participation from all over Delhi came in huge numbers. Contestants were made aware about the voting rights and the power of democracy as well. Lokendra Singh from SBSEC, DU, Vaishnavi Shivhare from SBSEC, DU and Gaurav Roy from Sri Venkateshwara College were declared as the winners of the contest. The event went on for more than two hours and with the vote of thanks delivered by Vice-President Akshat Chandra, the event came to an end.

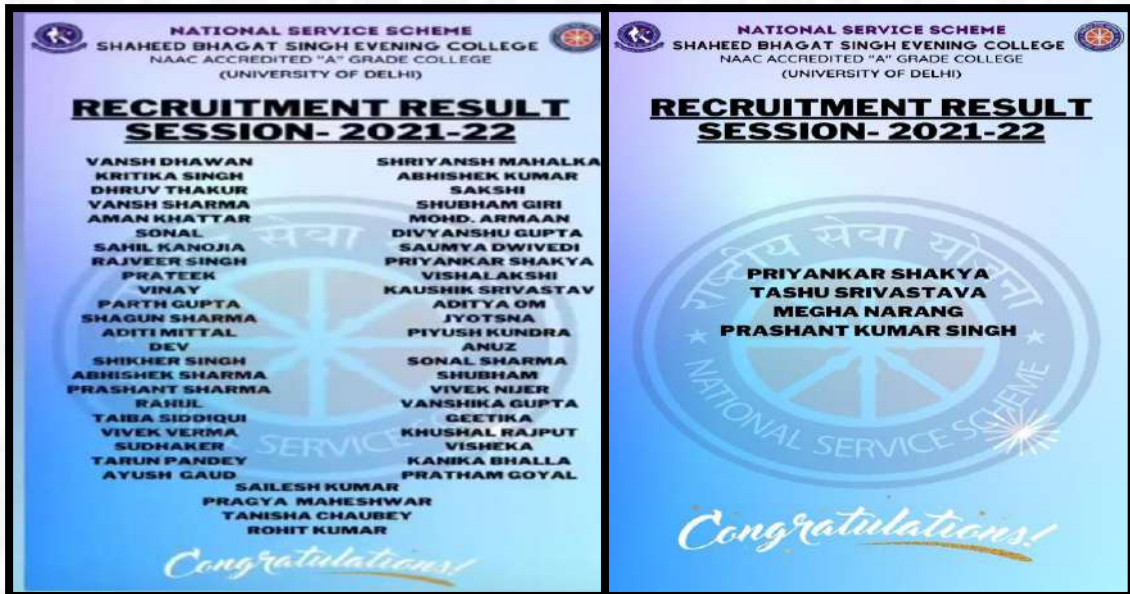

Overview:

The main motto of the program was to increase electoral participation and disseminate information about the electoral processes. It also focused on voter empowerment and participatory democracy with emphasis on participation of youth.

NSS Members Recruitment

Date: 14 January 2022

The NSS unit of SBSEC recruited new members. The applicants were interviewed by Akshat Chandra under the supervision of Prof. S.K. Bandooni (Program Officer), Dr. Kiran Jatav and Dr. Juhi Priyanka Horo (Student Coordinators). A total of 54 members were added.

Republic Day Celebration

Date: 26 January 2022

The NSS Unit celebrated the 73rd Republic Day with patriotic fervour as students took the pledge to uphold the honour and integrity of the country. The day was celebrated in virtual mode. The oath ceremony took place in the presence of Principal Professor S.K. Sinha who was welcomed by NSS volunteers. Speaking on the occasion, Professor S.K. Bandooni, Program officer of NSS, SBSEC, highlighted the importance of Republic Day and urged the attendees to become responsible citizens. He saluted the freedom fighters who had laid down their lives for the country. The welcome address was delivered by Dr. Juhi Priyanka Horo and Dr. Kiran Jatav - Student Coordinators of the NSS unit. Both the student coordinators urged the students to do their best and feel proud to be Indian. This was followed by the oath ceremony conducted by Sakshi Gangwar, volunteer of our NSS unit. The whole event reverberated with patriotic fervour and enthusiasm of the volunteers. A vote of thanks was proposed by Akshat Chandra. The celebration came to an end with the National Anthem.

Project Laali

Date: 11 April 2022

जय हिंद

"कपड़े पर लगे मेरे खून के दाग,
किसी के नवजीवन का सबूत है। फिर क्यों कह दिया यहां के लोगों ने,
कि केवल यह रक्त कण नहीं, समाज का अछूत है!"

Menstruation, or period, is a normal vaginal bleeding that occurs as a part of a women's monthly cycle but still it is considered a taboo in the society. Even today, the cultural and social influences create a major hurdle in ensuring that adolescent girls get proper Knowledge on menstrual hygiene.

High illiteracy, poverty, and lack of awareness about menstrual health and hygiene are the main reasons for this taboo.

To break the silence and to spread awareness, the NSS Unit, organized a seminar on the menstrual hygiene and women's health under the aegis of "Project Laali - शर्म नहीं, सुरक्षा" on 11 April.

The session was marked by the presence of esteemed guests:

Dr. Anjana Mathur Jagmohan, Assistant Professor at Dyal Singh College, University of Delhi

Mrs. Nupur Rastogi, President, Amoli Society for Women

Principal Prof. S.K. Sinha

Student coordinator Dr. Kiran Jatav and Dr. Juhi Priyanka Horo

Prog Officer Prof. S.K. Bandooni

The session began by addressing the existing taboos related to menstruation and how it is time to normalize "Period talk" and not feel ashamed about it. A short documentary on "Project Laali" and a website related to the project was launched and presented by the NSS team. The session turned out to be a success and was followed by a interactive quizzes and open mic session which made the day even more memorable.

Earth Day (Cleanliness Drive)

Date: 22 April

On Earth Day the NSS Unit conducted a cleanliness drive in Jahanpanah Forest, South Delhi. A total of 30 students participated in this drive were. It all started at 7 A.M. and continued till 10A.M. The unit also organised Climate Talks on the same day at the same location fostering a sense of environmental temperament in the volunteers and making them aware of climate changes and increase in temperatures because of global warming and industrial pollution. They all took the pledge to bring a change together and keep their college campus clean.

North East Society

With the aim of promoting the expression of ‘Brotherhood’ and ‘unity’ for all, the North East Society of Shaheed Bhagat Singh College is one of the well-known North East societies of the DU circuit. The society firmly believes and stands with the values and cultures of all students. It strives to provide a comfortable space where students feel free to interact on various issues pertaining to their region and provides them a platform to exhibit the beauty of the cultural diversity of north-eastern India through cultural fests, programs, sports etc.

Over the past years, the society has worked tirelessly towards uncovering the diversity and culture and bringing every student from the North East studying in Delhi University under one umbrella. Membership of the society is not limited to students from the region alone. The society has witnessed an increase in participation from members who are not from the region. It is a testament to the fact that the society is successfully moving towards its aim of bridging the gap between the North East and the rest of the country and building a safe environment for all.

In this academic session, a number of events were conducted:

1. Online Freshers Orientation 2021

It was a successful event held in online mode which helped the new batch of students from North East to interact with their seniors as well as the alumni. An opportunity was provided to them for showcasing their talent. The overall aim was to make them feel fearless and confident going forward for a bright future.

2. First Offline Freshers Meet After Pandemic

The first offline meet after 2020 cultural fest and Covid-19 pandemic was a huge success with the presence of society alumni from last five years. The event gave an opportunity for the freshers to showcase their talents as well. Students from other states also attended the function. There were fun games organised in the end. Nevertheless, it aimed at encompassing and embracing the true feeling of unity amongst all.

3. NESDU Sports 2022

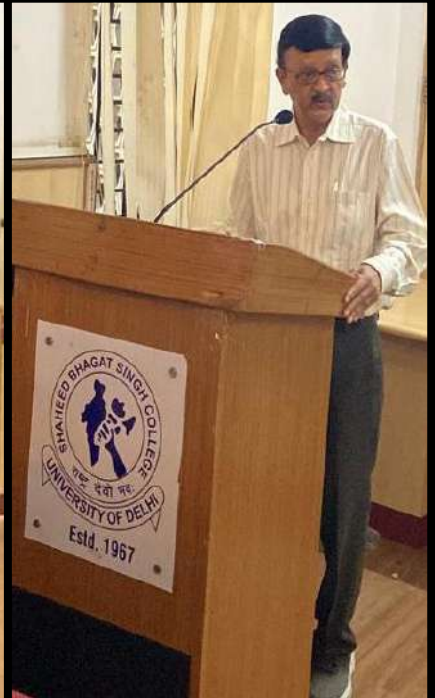

The edition of the NES DU Sports 2022, was held on the premises of Shaheed Bhagat Singh College. The two-day event saw the units from all the DU colleges competing and showcasing their sporting spirit. The event was a huge success and with great pride, The North East Society, SBSC again won the overall championships for the sixth time.

4. Cultural Fest:

Due unforeseen reasons, the fest for year 2022 couldn't be held but it is one of the best known fests in the DU circuit. This fest aims to spread awareness about the different cultures of North East India. Also, North East units from different DU colleges come and perform. It is through music, art, dance, food etc that students are motivated to know more about the region.

Reflection - The Photography Society

Reflection, the photography society has completed yet another successful session in the academic year 2021-22, despite adverse circumstances. The entire nation was put under lockdown, and we were all confined to our houses, but we didn't lose faith. The society saw new horizons and a wide diversification, particularly in the presence of alumni, from whom everyone has sought knowledge in some form. Photo walks, which provide basic and intrinsic ideas about photography, workshops, weekly challenges, and other activities, are all part of the society. Members here have numerous opportunities for self-discovery.

Workshops (Webinars)

- ❖ On 8 May 2021 an interactive session was held with Mr. Aarohan Tiwari - Professional Photographer Creator at Oneplus via Google meet, where the members of our society got to know about product photography

- ❖ On 17 May 2021 another interactive session was organized with Mr. Yusuf Kathawala - Nikon Professional Service Officer, where our members again found it very informative and learned a lot from him about street photography.

❖ Online Farewell

Due to Covid-19 being pandemic, a Virtual Farewell was organized for seniors on 30 June 2021. Some games and fun activities were organized on this occasion. Students went down the memory lane and gave tribute to their seniors by showcasing videos made by the team.

❖ New Session

The new session 2021-22 began with auditions that started with some theme-based entries of which we selected the best, followed by an on-the-spot round (live round) and virtual screening, from which we got the best of all.

Our members are Anushka Gupta, Aditya Torke, Ambar Khandelwal, Aniket Mahato, Hardik Ahuja, Kanya Kaushal, Lotus, Pratham Gulhati, Sanskar Tiwari, Stanzin Stobden, Yash Gupta, Gautam, Aman Bedi, Siya Bajaj, Komit Yadav, Harsh Kumar, Huda Sofi, Hari Krishna Singh, Prabhat Kumar, Harsh Yadav, Harshit Yadav, Padam Shree Saini, Ayush Goel, Md. Sameer Khan

The society kick-started its photo hunt with fortnightly or monthly photo walks.

After recruitment process, we organized the first photo walk of the new session on 26 February 2022 at Humayun's Tomb, New Delhi.

The second photo walk was organized on 5 March 2022 at Chandni chowk.

The third photo walk was held on 12 March 2022 at the Delhi Zoo.

Collaborations and Major Events Covered

Team Reflection always covers all possible events conducted by various societies in the college. A few of our collaborations are with the following societies - NSS, NCC, Enactus, E-cell, Varico, Placement Cell, Malhar, Women Development Centre, Sangharsh, Nuke, Economics Society, Areopagitica, Carpe-Diem, Geography Department and BA Department.

The Photography Society of Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College is one of the only societies in Delhi University to have its own magazine. The whole year went through a series of memorable experiences as the whole team familiarized itself with the concepts of photography including portrait photography, landscape photography, candid photography, street photography, long exposure photography and more, via webinars and Instagram Live sessions, and major collaborations with Mr. Aarohan Tiwari and Mr. Yusuf Kathawala.

The real purpose of Reflection gets recognised when we bag trophies and prizes while participating in various institutes of Delhi University and outside of it.

Below mentioned are the winners from team reflection who were able to win prizes for our college:

- ❖ Stanzin Stobden won First prize at the photography competition organized by SDC AVIRAL-2022
- ❖ Shubhika Garg secured Second position in photography competition organised by SDC AVIRAL-2022, she also secured first as well as second position in the theme 'Monochrome' organised by Rotract club of DELHI PEGASUS
- ❖ Huda Sofi secured Third position in photography competition organised by SDC AVIRAL-2022
- ❖ Ambar Khandelwal secured First position at competition 'Monochromatica' organised by DDUC botany.
- ❖ Mani Bhushan Sinha secured First position in Nature Photography competition organised by Geography Department of SBSEC.

Reflection also holds its annual fest, “Photons’22” where the year round work of the members are showcased in the gallery to the audiences.

The journey of reflection would have been incomplete without the guidance of our Honorable Principal Prof. S. K. Sinha and the precious guidance of our Convenor Prof. V. S. Negi, Co-Convenor Dr. Gaurav Nain and Dr. Suman Das by whom team reflection was highly motivated to take several steps forward.

Sangharsh: The Dramatics Society

'Sangharsh' started its journey almost 10 years ago. It was never easy for 'Sangharsh', being an evening group, to be recognized as a par excellence society in Delhi University Theatre Circuit. However, with sheer hard work, dedication and immense courage, it has come to stand as one of the most acknowledged and appreciated dramatics society of Delhi University Theatre Circuit (DUTC).

While other dramatics societies were still pondering over the revival of theatre after a prolonged Covid period, 'Sangharsh' never stopped working. While others were adapting to the new virtual world, 'Sangharsh' was on-ground ready to take the DUTC by a storm, which it whole heartedly did in this year.

During this session, with the blessings of the Convenor Prof Chandra Shekhar Dubey and Principal Prof. Sudhir Kumar Sinha, 'Sangharsh' achieved new heights by representing itself at various platforms throughout the Delhi University Theatre Circuit, winning accolades from the audience and support of people.

Sangharsh Office Bearers for this session

4-day Intensive Theatre Workshop

'Sangharsh' held its 4-day workshop of the Batch'13 from 13 to 16 December. The workshop was successful and filled with great energy and enthusiasm. As usual, it was meant to encourage the spirit of theatre in the new generation of artists and give them a sneak-peek into the real working of a dramatics society.

Productions of 2021-22

'Sangharsh' has undertaken three annual productions this year, which include two stage productions and one street production, namely:

- NEER NIRUPAN (STAGE)

Festivals organized

On 25-27 April 2022, 'Sangharsh' successfully organized its annual fest Goonj'22 with a vibrant and colourful theme of "Mela" after two years, comprising of both stage play and street play competitions at Muktheadhara auditorium and the College Campus, respectively. The discussants were Mr. Keval Arora and Mr. Mukherjee P who were kind enough to grace the event with their presence.

Also, on 7 May 2022, Sangharsh organized its much-awaited program - Muqaam 2022 - an event which is the culmination of the yearlong hard work.

All the three stage productions were performed in this event with enthusiasm and zest, which garnered good response from the audience comprising of families, teachers and friends. With this, the year 2021-22 finally came to a successful closure.

Sangh-kriti: The Intercultural Society

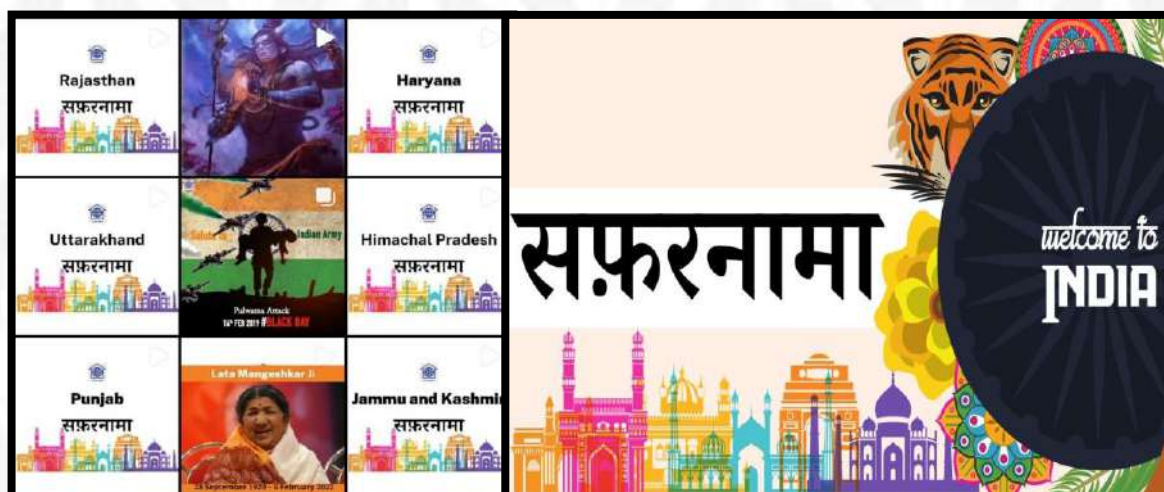

Sangh-kriti has been a platform for university students with different beliefs and backgrounds to be able to share their views and voice their opinions. It aims at creating a sense of peace and unity among all. The society believes that acceptance and tolerance of each other's cultures and opinions should be inculcated and cultivated at the university level. "वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम्" (Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam), which means that the entire world is one family, has been the society's motto from day one.

Academic year 2021-2022 was conducted in a hybrid mode. Half of the session was held in online mode and the rest of the months were spent in the college. It gave the society's members many opportunities to work towards their motto. Under the guidance of Principal Prof. S.K. Sinha and Convenor Prof. C.S. Dubey, the society members turned this year into a successful one.

Some of the major events were as follows:

❖ Safarnama

It was an online series of short documentaries with each video covering every aspect of a state. Right from various cultural ethnicities to dance forms, local cuisine, hotspots and attire, everything was portrayed in captivating ways. The videos were posted on various social media platforms including Instagram and YouTube and were an instant hit among students.

❖ Orientation

Sangh-kriti had organized an orientation program at the commencement of the offline mode of college. The program was conducted to re-introduce the society and its culture to its new members as well as the rest of the college. The strength and unity of the country was showcased in vibrant hues. The members of the society from all four corners of India (Jammu and Kashmir, Kerala, Rajasthan and Assam) portrayed their rich culture and heritage through videos and presentations. The Safarnama video based on Delhi was also launched in the presence of college Principal. The orientation program was the highlight of the day.

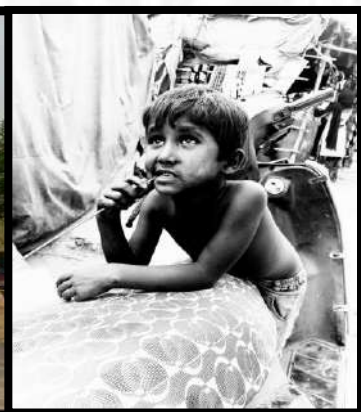

❖ Visit to “Bharat Bhagya Vidhata” :

One of the most anticipated events in India and one of the world’s largest cultural extravaganzas was held from 25 March to 3 April at the iconic Red Fort, New Delhi. As part of the government’s ‘Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav’ to celebrate 75 years of Indian Independence, “Bharat Bhagya Vidhata” event was organized by the government. It was a cultural treat for the visitors. Locals of each state had put up their stalls, skits, games and entertainment areas for the spectators. Team Sangh-Kriti had the best time as its members got a chance to witness the vibrant parades and display. The place was oozing with cultural richness, happiness and triumph.

❖ Visit with the team of “Hands in Deed”

Hands In Deed is a government recognised NGO that works towards the upliftment of the needy and also provides free meals and education to the kids who are unable to attend schools or those who need help with their studies. The Hands in Deed team works religiously so that the younger generation of all classes of society receives education and can move away from poverty. The members of Sangh-Kriti - along with the HID team - visited one of their frequented establishments near Shaheen Bagh, Noida. They were a part of the meal service and also and helped students with their studies. The saying “the more the merrier” was clearly made for an occasion just like this one. The members of the society had a blissful time with the kids and even learnt to count their own blessings from time to time.

❖ Farewell :

Members from the first and second years organised a special farewell programme for the final year students. The event saw a bevy of fun games and performances hosted by the students of first and second years. There were gifts, speeches and an impromptu dance session at the end. The achievements and snapshots of the society during academic year 2021-2022 were also presented in a video form. Our convenor Prof. C.S. Dubey sir was present during the entirety of the programme and motivated the students. This programme saw a lot of emotions - happy as well as sad. Our seniors may have left us for new shores but they will forever remain a part of the society.

Sustainable Development Centre

Sustainable Development Centre (SDC) Shaheed Bhagat Singh Evening College (SBSEC), University of Delhi was founded in July 2020. It aims to promote and help to achieve Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) as identified by United Nations (UN) by 2030. The foundation of SDC at the college level is a small but revolutionary step in the direction of achieving SDGs. It has completed its first academic year very successfully with lots of new ideas innovations programs and events for achieving SDGs.

In the academic session 2021-22 it organised many such events to do the same. SDC launched a project on 'Online Awareness Programme' regarding sustainable development goals in which it covered Goal 8 of SDG- Decent work and economic growth, Goal 14 of SDG- Life below water; with the medium of articles, facts, movies and biopic suggestions, and daily quizzes through the official Instagram page. The project is still in continuation. The centre organised a webinar on 'BIMARU States' with Prof. Ashwani Mahajan who is a professor in the Department of Economics, PGDAV College (University of Delhi) and a social activist. It was held through a different online platform; Google meet where 99 participants actively joined throughout the webinar. It also streamed through Facebook, YouTube, and Instagram where numerous participants joined.

In the physical mode of college the centre organised 'Himalayan Livelihood Programme' held on 18 February 2022. In this program, the SDC sold herbs and natural products of the Himalayas on the college campus and create awareness regarding Himalayan vegetation and herbs. The centre also celebrated Women's Day on 8 March 2022 with two virtual competitions on- Slogan Writing and Extempore Competition.

The SDC annual festival- Aviral-2022 was held on 25 April 2022 which had diverse competitions such as Turn Coat Debate Competition, Poetry Competition, Face Painting Competition, Street Play Competition, Photography Competition, Treasurer Hunt, etc. The centre worked under the auspices of Department of Geography under the in-chargeship of Prof. Ravi Shekhar and was convened by Prof. V.S. Negi; co-convened by Dr. Anupama Hasija. Among the students office bearers following students held the posts- Ms. Sakshi Gangwar (President), Mr. Rohit Kumar (Vice-President), Ms. Mansi (Secretary), Mr. Anuj Sharma (Treasurer), Ms. Samishtha Singh (Technical Head), Ms. Mahima Mishra (Student Coordinator), Mr. Navneet Yadav (Student Coordinator). The winners of the Slogan Writing Competition were: First position: Suhail Showkat Mir, Second position: Prarthna Mishra, and Third position: Amit Kumar. The winners of the Extempore Competition were the following; First position: Yuvraj, Second position: Huda Sofi, Third position: Divyanshu.

Vision

- Sustainable Development Centre envisions sensitizing community at large about the need for achieving sustainable development goals through effective youth participation.
- It also aims to achieve universal health coverage, and provide access to safe and effective medicines and vaccines for all, we here at SDC map out the activities which directly relate to the theme and make general awareness happen in and amongst student members and their families and this is how we happen to play our part as responsible citizens.

The Placement Cell

The Placement Cell SBSEC was founded in the year 2014-15 with the goal to provide employment & internship opportunities to the students of the college in some of the reputed organizations. It acts as an interface between the industry and the students to enable them to select their career path. Students are provided assistance and counselling for choosing a suitable career.

The key objective of The Placement Cell SBSEC is to create awareness among students regarding the available career options and help them in identifying their career objectives. We also work in order to guide the students in developing skills and job-search strategies required to achieve their career objectives. The Placement Cell is guided with the constant support of their Convenor Mr. Sunder Singh & Co-Convenor Dr. Amrita Kaur along with the Student President of the cell Ms. Shruti Rani.

The Placement Cell provides the perfect mix of professional & personal development. It enhances your networks, body language, confidence, communication skills and your perspective towards day-to-day tasks with a better clarity of the corporates. Students from all courses of 1st Year & 2nd Year are welcomed to be a part of The Placement Cell every year. We believe that trust and loyalty can be built and groomed only over a period of time. The students have to appear for the tedious selection process criteria and only a handful of them are taken in every year. The selection ratio of the Cell is approximately 1:40 i.e., for every 40 students, 1 student is selected. This is enough to justify the standard of work that has to be delivered and the importance of the work that The Placement Cell is committed to.

The Events and Workshops organized are as follows:

1. Prep-E-Thon – 15 June 2021 to 17 June by T.I.M.E and FacePrep:

The Placement Cell SBSEC organized an event “Prep-E-Thon” to prepare students for the upcoming placement session. It was a three-day long marathon which included pre assessment aptitude test, group discussion and personal interview rounds.

2. CV Vetting Drive – 25 June 2021: The Placement Cell SBSEC conducted its first bimonthly formal CV Vetting Drive to formalize processes for the Campus Placements. More than 250 students participated in the online Exam and CV vetting drive conducted by the Cell.

3. Orientation Session for the Batch of 2022 – 27 June 2021: The Orientation session was conducted by the Placement Coordinators. Placement guidelines, processes and policies were thoroughly discussed along with the Brochure and Report of the previous academic year.

4. CV Building Workshop and Doubt Solving Session – 10 July 2021 by CV Owl: This workshop was conducted by the officials of the well-known organization, “CV Owl” who focused on the basics of Resume formation and imparted useful insights about the common mistakes students commit while making their Resumes.

5. Experienced Talks Season 3 – 28 July 2021 till 30 April 2022: Experience Talks is a unique idea of series of videos that unveils stories and experiences of the students from the college who were successful in obtaining placements. Started in the session 2019-20, this not only provided useful insights but also helped to increase inter-personal skills among the students. This series is available at the official Instagram handle of The Placement Cell, SBSEC. The series has generated 5000+ views.

6. Webinar on Analytics through a real case-study – 20 August by Talerang: The Placement Cell SBSEC in collaboration with Talerang conducted a session on solving a case study for the students of final year to sharpen their analytical mindset.

7. Webinar on CV Building and Internship Guidance – 2 September 2021 by T.I.M.E: The Placement Cell SBSEC in collaboration with T.I.M.E. conducted a session on building a powerful resume to stand out in interviews during internship sessions.

8. Workshop Conducted by Admit PRO on Education Abroad – 5 September 2021: Professors from the recognized institute Admit PRO participated with The Placement Cell SBSEC to impart the positives and negatives about pursuing further education abroad.

9. Collaboration with Internshala – 10 September 2021: The Placement Cell SBSEC takes in great pride to collaborate with Internshala, in which the students of the college can search for internship and fellowship opportunities.

10. Collaboration with Google Kormo Jobs – 16 October 2021: The Placement Cell SBSEC takes in great pride to collaborate with Google and Josh Talks to register the institute with the Google powered initiative “Kormo Jobs”, in which the students of the college can search for job and internship opportunities.

11. Achievers Speak – Interact with Achievers – 5 November 2021: Achievers Speak is one of the flagship initiatives by The Placement Cell SBSEC to invite students from our college or other colleges from Delhi University to come and share their experience of cracking some of the highly competitive entrance Exams. We invited more than 5 speakers who enlightened the students with their journeys in CAT, CA, ACCA, etc.

12. Webinar on Careers in Public Policy/Development Sector – 14 February 2022: The Placement Cell SBSEC conducted a webinar with Vansh Saluja, a highly experienced individual in the field of Governance and Public Policy which focussed on how students can bring about change and build India by solving new age problems, while growing personally and professionally.

13. Webinar on CV Making & LinkedIn Profile Building –21 February 2022 by Resumod: The Placement Cell SBSEC conducted a webinar especially for the freshers so that they can be more confident while applying for internships.

14. Formation of Dedicated Groups for Internships – 25 February 2022: The Placement Cell SBSEC took the charge of internships at a greater level this year and shifted all the process online to get the students of first year registered for the Internship Updates Group.

15. Webinar on Internship Counselling – 4 March 2022 by Younity: The Placement Cell SBSEC conducted a Webinar in collaboration with Younity to help freshers crack internships

इश्क पर जोर नही... बहुत कठिन है डगर पनघट की

कहा गया है सांघ्यालोक के लिए कुछ लिखूँ। समझ में नहीं आ रहा था क्या लिखूँ तो मन में आया अपने जीवन यात्रा की कुछ झलक ही दे दूँ। एक अदभुत शैली में लिखने का प्रयास कर रहा हूँ। कम-से-कम मैंने इस अंदाज़ में पहले कभी नहीं लिखा।

जीवन की शुरुआत बिहार के गया शहर में हुई। माता धार्मिक थी जिन्हें संपूर्ण रामायण कंठस्थ थी और पिता कर्मठ थे। जो हर रोज़ बगैर थके 16 से 20 घंटे कार्यलीन होते थे। अपनी कर्मठता से उन्होंने कुछ ही वर्षों में हमारे परिवार को शहर में एक प्रतिष्ठित और धनाढ्य परिवार बना दिया था। बचपन माता के रामायण वाचन और पिता के कर्मठता के बीच गुजरा। भवन - वाहन - बाग-बगीचा का पूर्ण सुख मिला।

हायर सेकेंड्री करने के अंतिम चरण में दोस्तों ने दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय में अध्ययन की ललक जागृत कर दी। पिता से दिल्ली में पढ़ने की इजाज़त माँगी। उन्होंने इजाज़त तो दे दी लेकिन शर्त रख दी कि मुझे जीवन का रास्ता खुद बनाना पड़ेगा और परिवार का संरक्षण बंद हो जाएगा। मैंने चुनौती स्वीकार कर ली और लगभग 16 वर्ष की आयु में दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय पढ़ने आ गया। घर से हिन्दू महाविद्यालय में इतिहास (विशेष) में दाखिला लेने निकला लेकिन ट्रेन में इरादा बदल दिया और किरोड़ीमल महाविद्यालय में भूगोल (विशेष) में दाखिला ले लिया। मेरे जीवन के इस सोलहवें सावन ने मेरे जीवन की दिशा ही बदल दी ओर मेरे अंदर नई परिस्थितियाँ पनपने लगी।

सोलहवाँ सावन रोमांचक रहा। दिल्ली आते ही विषम परिस्थितियों का सामना करना पड़ा। शुरुआती दौर टकराव व संघर्ष में जूझते गुज़रा। इस संघर्ष ने मेरे अंदर एक- जुझारू व्यक्तित्व का बीजारोपण किया जो समय के साथ पल्लवित हो गया। संघर्ष में सफलता ने आत्मविश्वास दिया और बड़ी जल्दी मैं विश्वविद्यालय में एक निर्भीक, जुझारू, छात्र-नेता के रूप में भी उभरा। छात्र संघ के कई चुनाव भी जीते। उन वर्षों में जय शंकर प्रसाद की यह पंक्तियाँ मेरा मार्गदर्शन करती रहीं

शक्ति के जो विद्युत कण
बिखरे हैं व्युत्पल निरुपाय,
समन्वय करें गर हम उनका
विजयिनी मानवता हो जाए।

छात्र नेता रहते हुए लगभग हर रोज़ शाम को मेरे घर पर महफिल सजती रही और उन महफिलों में आज की हिन्दुस्तान की बड़ी-बड़ी शख्सियतों- भारत सरकार के केन्द्रीय मंत्री, मुख्यमंत्री, भारत सरकार के उच्चस्थ पदाधिकारी, मीडिया के धुरंधर, उपकुलपति, पद्मश्री, पद्मभूषण, का साथ मिला। नेतागिरी के साथ-साथ अध्ययन में भी सफलता ने मुझे दिल्ली विश्वविद्यालय का प्राध्यापक बना दिया।

सोलहवें सावन के बाद बत्तीसवाँ सावन रोमांचक और मद भरा निकला। जिस्मानी और रुहानी दोनों मोहब्बत को चिंगारी मिली। जीवन बदल गया, महक गया। साथ में एक करिश्मा हो गया- पत्नी के रूप में हमसफर मिल गई। मेरी खुशकिस्मती। मेरे जीवन को एक नई दिशा मिली, जीवन का रूप ही बदल गया।

सोलह से बत्तीस वर्षों का सफ़र पूर्ण भौतिकतावादी था- दौलत, शोहरत, विजय की भूख की ओर दौड़ा, और इस दौड़ में सफलता भी ख़ूब मिली। कम उम्र में इतनी भौतिकतावादी सफलता विरलों को ही नसीब होती है। मैं भाग्यशाली था। मेरे एक टीचर ने जब मैं एम-ए. कर रहा था तो टिप्पणी की-

"जीने का अंदाज़ ही तो सुधीर जैसा।"

लेकिन बत्तीसवें सावन ने जीने के दृष्टिकोण को ही बदल दिया-
अध्ययात्म की ओर। पहले मंजिल की ओर बेतहाशा दौड़ रहा था, अब
ठहराव आ गया। जीवन के मायने बदल गए और दुनिया की दौड़ बेमानी
लगने लगी। जीने का एक नया मंत्र मिला -

मंजिल मिले ना मिले, गिला नहीं, ये क्या कम है कि तुम मेरे साथ-साथ हो।

शादी के कुछ महीनों बाद ही मेरी पत्नी मुझे अपने धर्मस्थल ले गई-
शुक्रिया अदा करने। पता नहीं था कि यही दरबार मेरा धर्मस्थल और
कर्मस्थल क्षेत्र बन जाएगा। दरबार में पहली बार जब मैं गया तो
यह कव्वाली सुनकर यह लगा कि मैं भाग्यशाली हूँ -

मुझे आपने बुलाया, मेरा मर्तबा बढ़ाया, ये तेरा करम नहीं तो और क्या है।

दरबार में सैकड़ों लोगों को भाव विहल हो कर एक खूबसूरत कशिश से
भरा शिकायत करते सुना

क्यों आँख लड़ाई थी, क्यों आग लगाई थी,
अब खुद ही पर्दानशी हो बैठे, मुझको दीवाना बना के।

भाव विहल हुए हजारों के हुजूम को जब मैंने अपने बाबा, अपने
भगवान का कदमबोसी करते देखा तो मन में स्वतः ही ये शब्द पल्लवित
हो गए-

मंजिल मेरे बीते हुए लम्हों को ढूँढती है, और मेरे कदमों के निशान को जहाँ चूमती है।

और फिर शुरू हुआ मेरा, मेरे बाबा, और उस दरबार से मोहब्बत का सिलसिला। पता ही नहीं लगा कब रब से बेपनाह मोहब्बत हो गयी। गालिब का यह शेर पढ़ा और सुना तो बहुत था पर उसे मायने तब मिला जब मुझे पता ही नहीं लगा कि कब मैं रब का हो गया-

इश्क पर ज़ोर नहीं गालिब,
ये वो आतिश है,
जो लगाए ना लगे, बुझाए न बुझे।

और

गोरी गोरी बैयाँ, हरी-हरी चूड़ियाँ,
हरी- हरी चूड़ियाँ, गोरी-गोरी बैयाँ,
बैयाँ पकड़ हर लीनी, मोसे नैना मिला के।

यह धुन मुझे डूबोता गया इश्क की गहराईयों में और फिर खुसरो की इन पंक्तियों का अर्थ समझ आया-

खुसरो दरिया प्रेम की, वाकी उल्टी धार,
जो पार हुआ सो डूब गया,
जो डूब गया सो पार।

और जब इस राह पर चलने लगा तो चुनौतियाँ भी बहुत मिली। कई इम्तिहानों से गुजरने लगा। मस्ती का आलम तो मिला ही लेकिन यह भी जता दिया गया-

ये इश्क नहीं आसान,
बस इतना ही समझ लीजै,
इक आग का दरिया है
और डूब कर जाना है।

और इस तरह शुरू हुआ, मेरा मेरे बाबा से मोहब्बत का सिलसिला या यूँ कहिये - "मैं" से "मैं" विहीन होने का बहुत ही कठिन और नायाब सफर। जैसे-जैसे आगे बढ़ा, लगता गया-

"बहुत कठिन है डगर पनघट की"

बाबा ने प्रेरणा भी दी, उत्साहित भी किया साथ ही मुझे इन पांक्तियों का आभास भी कराया गया -

मुझे आईना देखने का और खुद को निहारने का बहुत शौक था।

एक दिन खुद को निहार रहा था,
तो एकाएक आइने में बाबा दिख गए,
और फिर बाबा की शकल में
खुद का शकल दिख गया।

मेरे बाबा ने मुझे शिक्षा और दीक्षा दी- "तन मन एक हो"। और मैं अपने गुरु से यह इल्तज़ा करने लगा-

ऐ मेरे पीर भ्रम मेरा ये बनाए, मैं तेरा हूँ यकीन ये दिलाये रखना।

हैरानी भी हो रही थी कि जिस राह का कोई अता पता नहीं, कैसे मस्ती के आलम में उस अंजाने डगर पर बेखौफ बढ़ा जा रहा हूँ-

ना जानू आरती बंदन, ना ही पूजा की रीत,
ये तेरा करम है मेरे बाबा, जो बात अब तक बनी हुई है।

बत्तीसवें साल में जीवन 360° पर घूम गई। सोलह से बत्तीस तक भौतिकतावाद की प्रधानता रही। माता की धर्मिकता और पिता की कर्मठता साथ-साथ चली। बचपन से शिव मेरे इष्ट देव रहे हैं - विशेषकर शिव का औघड़ दानी स्वरूप। साथ में कर्ण - महाभारत के अहम व्यक्तित्व की दानप्रियता से प्रभावित रहा था। सोलह से बत्तीस के दौरान रोज़ सुबह मेरे कमरे पर दरबार लगता था। मेरे सोकर उठने से पहले पाँच-दस लोग विराजमान रहते थे। मुझे खुशी है मेरे दरबार में जो आया कोई भी खाली हाथ नहीं गया। सैकड़ों की झोली में कुछ ना कुछ गिरा। हालांकि इस प्रक्रिया में मेरा सब कुछ सांसारिक अर्जित, मेरा नहीं रहा। पर मुझे अत्यंत हर्ष है कि ऊपर वाले ने सैकड़ों लोगों की समस्या के समाधान का माध्यम मुझे बनाया। उनके माध्यम बनने से ज़्यादा खुशकिस्मती क्या हो सकती है। औघड़ दानी शिव का भक्त भी मैं था सो जिस पर मन प्रसन्न हुआ अपना सब कुछ न्यौछावर करदिया।

और शिव से ही प्रभावित मेरे आग्रह के बावजूद यदि कोई रास्ते का रोड़ा बना तो जिस तरह डाइनामाइट विस्फोट से चट्टान उड़ाई जाती है उसी तरह रास्ते के रोड़े को भी उड़ा दिया। जहाँ दोस्तों के लिए जान - हाज़िर थी, वहीं दुश्मनों के लिए खौफ़ था।

बतीसवें साल से यह सब बदलने लगा। जो पहले से जानते थे उन्हें आश्चर्य था कि सांसारिक दौड़ में इतना सफल होने के बाद दौड़ से कैसे हट गया। जो बाद में जीवन में मिले, उनमें कईयों को मैं एक हारा हुआ व्यक्ति लगा। मन कई बार कहता था कि इन्हें कह दूँ कि "जीती हुई बाज़ी थी, मैंने जानकर हारी थी।" पर नहीं कहा क्योंकि जो जीवन में महत्वपूर्ण नहीं उनमें कैसा उलझना। कुछ नए लोग जो जीवन में आए उन्होंने कमज़ोर समझ लिया। जिस नाम से दुश्मन थर्राते थे आज उसी पर कमजोर और बलहीन- आक्रमण करने लगे। वाह रे समय चक्र। कईयों ने, बदनाम करने की कोशिश की। मैंने जवाबी हमला की सोची तो मेरे बाबा ने मुझे रोक लिया। कहा अब जब तुम मेरे ही गए तो जवाब मैं दूँगा और उचित समय पर दूँगा। और जिस्म पर लोगों ने अनगिनत चोट और जख्म दिए लेकिन मेरे बाबा का करम कि जिस्म जख्म से भरा था लेकिन कहीं दर्द नहीं:

ए नमक पाश तुझे तेरी मलाहत की कसम,
मजा तो तब है जब हर जख्म नमकसार हो जाए।

समय के साथ मैंने अपने बाबा का करम भी देख लिया। जिस जिसने मुझे चोट पहुँचाने की कोशिश की, एक-एक कर सबको बर्बाद होते देखा। मन में यह ख्याल पल्लवित हुआ-

शीशे का मकान जो मैंने बनाया,
जमाने के हाथों ने लाख पत्थर मारा,
हर पत्थर को शीशे से टकरा चूर होता पाया,
ये तेरा करम नहीं तो और क्या है।

सोलह का पहाड़ा मेरे जीवन में बहुत महत्वपूर्ण रहा है। सोलह और बत्तीस का सावन जब अपना-अपना नशा दे चुका था तो अड़तालीसवाँ क्यों कम रहता। अड़तालीसवाँ सावन कयामत का सावन निकला। संपूर्ण अस्तित्व हिल गया। पूरी दुनिया दुश्मन बन गई। संकट के बादलों ने जीवन को चारों ओर से घेर लिया। बाबा ने आभास कराया। धैर्य रखो, सब ठीक हो जाएगा। आज महसूस होता है यह समय मेरे धैर्य और विश्वास की परीक्षा थी।

मैं भी अड़ा रहा और बाबा से कहा - या तो मेरी जीवन नैया आप किनारे लगाओगे या मैं डूब जाऊँगा। कई लोगों ने मदद भी देनी चाही पर मैंने इंकार कर दिया। जिद्द थी पार लगाएंगे तो मेरे बाबा, मेरे गुरु, मेरे भगवान । मैं परीक्षा में उत्तीर्ण हुआ, मेरी आस्था जीत गई। मेरे बाबा ने चमत्कार किया। समुद्र में सुनामी आया हुआ था। सागर की प्रचंड लहरें मेरी जीवन नौका को बुरी तरह झकझोर रही थी, उथल-पुथल कर रही थी। बड़ा ही भयावह दृश्य था। पर जहाँ नौका के बाहर समुद्री तूफान का प्रकोप था, नौका के अंदर थी एक अलौकिक विस्मित कर देने वाली शांति। मैं नौका में बैठा देख रहा था समुद्री सुनामी को, लेकिन सुनामी की परवाह किए बगैर मैं मस्ती में लीन था अपने आराध्य की अराधना में। और देख रहा था मेरी नौका समुद्री तूफान की परवाह किए बगैर धीरे-धीरे शांत भाव से किनारे की ओर बढ़ती जा रही है -

कोई आलम , आलम नहीं है
कोई खुशी, खुशी नहीं है,
मुझे जिस हाल में भी तू रखे,
तेरी बन्दापरवरी है।

अब दुनियावी कोई चाहत ही नहीं बची थी। बस चाहत थी तो अपने बाबा के सानिध्य की, उनके करम की। दुनियादारी का नशा चकनाचूर हो चुका था और एक आनंदमयी नशे का मैं मतवाला हो गया था -

ये जो हल्का-हल्का सरर है,
तेरी निगाहों का कसूर है,
मैं पीता नहीं था,
तूने मुझे अपनी आँखों से पीना सिखा दिया
और मुझको एक शराबी बना दिया।

चूँकि सोलहवाँ, बत्तीसवाँ और अड़तालीसवाँ सावन बारिश करता रहा है, तो यकीन है चौसठवे सावन की घटायें मन और आत्मा दोनों को तृप्त कर देंगी। "मैं" से "मैं" विहीन होने की यात्रा जो बत्तीसवें सावन से शुरू की थी उम्मीद है बाबा की कृपा से साकार होगी- "मैं मतलब रब और रब मतलब मैं" और बाबा से मेरी गुज़ारिश होगी –

*यहाँ जो अपना बनाया है मुझको,
तो महशर में भी कह देना,
ये है दीवाना मेरा*

आत्मदाह

यूं खबर मिली है फिर मुझको
कोई खुशियों से नाता तोड़ गया,
आखिर खुद ही हिम्मत हारकर
वो जिंदगी का दामन छोड़ गया।

अब अल्फाज़ नहीं है मेरे पास
उसकी रूह को यह बताने को,
उन मां-बाप का प्यार बहुत था
उसकी अहमियत जताने को।

सोचा ना था उस परिवार ने कि
कभी ऐसा दिन भी आएगा,
कि प्यारा बेटा दुखों से हारकर
इस दुनिया को छोड़ जाएगा।

आखिर यूं ही वो नन्हा सितारा भी
इस कमबख्त जमाने से हार गया,
बस तकलीफों से लड़ाई छोड़कर
शोक में खुद को ही मार गया।

यूं तो कोई बड़ा फासला नहीं है
जिंदगी और मौत के किनारे में,
बस खुदकुशी करने से पहले सोचना
मां-बाप की परवरिश के बारे में।

आखिर बेबसों का मज़ाक बनाना
ये तो इस दुनिया का दस्तूर है,
फिर भी बुलंद रहा जिसका हौसला
बस वही दुनिया में मशहूर है।

हम मिलेंगे

हम मिलेंगे कभी किसी गली, किसी बाज़ार
में मिलेंगे

हम मिलेंगे होली ईद या और किसी
त्योहार में मिलेंगे

हम मिलेंगे कहीं स्टेशन पर भीड़ में, कहीं
किसी रेस्त्रां-बार में मिलेंगे

हम मिलेंगे कहीं किसी दूसरे शहर में, किसी और के इंतजार में मिलेंगे

हम मिलेंगे जिन्दगी से लड़ते हुए, अपनी
जिंदगी में आगे बढ़ते हुए

हम मिलेंगे जिम्मेदारी का बोझ उठाए,
दुनिया की रेस में भागते हुए मिलेंगे

हम मिलेंगे रात भर जागते हुए, अपने
सपनों को दूर से ताकते हुए मिलेंगे

हम मिलेंगे कहीं किसी सरकारी दफ़्तर में,
लंच खत्म होने के इंतज़ार में मिलेंगे

हम मिलेंगे सपनों को पाते हुए, हम
आसमान का तारा तोड़ते हुए मिलेंगे

हम मिलेंगे कभी अखबारों में , और कभी-
कभी समाचारों में मिलेंगे

बिछड़ के हम एक दूसरे से फिर, न मिलने
के बहाने में मिलेंगे

फिर भी अगर जो हम न मिले, तो देखना
तुम्हारे दिल के बंद किसी तहखाने में
मिलेंगे एकसाथ हरदम!!

कॉलेज लाइफ

स्कूल छूटा तो कॉलेज आए, अनजाना सा था शहर थोड़ा घबराएं
अपनों से दूर जाने का था गम, लेकिन अपना ही भविष्य बनाने चले थे हम

कटऑफ क्लियर हुई तो जान में जान आई, डी.यू का स्टूडेंट होने की
हमने थी पहचान पाई, कॉलेज का वो पहला दिन जब हर कोई हम से
अनजान था, आपका नाम और कोर्स क्या है, सबकी जुबां पर पर बस
यही एक सवाल था,

कुछ दिन बीते माहौल बदलने लगा, वो अनजाना वाला सफर अब
दोस्ती में बदलने लगा

कुछ दिनों बाद कॉलेज इलेक्शन नजदीक आए , लाइफ में पहली बार
वोटिंग कर हम भी थोड़ा मुस्कराएं,

अब घर की याद थोड़ी कम आने लगी थी, कॉलेज की वो रंगत हमको
भी भाने लगी थी,

कुछ समय बाद कुछ सोसाइटीज से हम जुड़े, डिपार्टमेंट के साथ पूरे
कॉलेज से भी कुछ दोस्त बने,

अब कॉलेज में थोड़ी हलचल सी थी, क्योंकि अब बारी फ्रेशर्स पार्टी
और फेस्ट की थी,

क्लासेस से ज्यादा अब फेस्ट और इवेंट कॉलेज में मनते थे,

सेमीनार हॉल में जाना तो सिर्फ एक बहाना था, मेन टारगेट तो ए.सी
की ठंडी हवा और रिफ्रेशमेंट बॉक्स लाना था

कॉलेज ग्राउंड से एक अलग ही यारी थी, क्लासेस खत्म होने के बाद
जमती महकिल हमारी थी

लेकिन हमारी कॉलेज लाइफ को लगी किसी की नजर, पूरी दुनिया पर छाया कोविड का कहर,

अब कॉलेज लाइफ गूगल मीट से शुरू होकर गूगल क्लासरूम ही सिमट गई,

और “एम आई ऑडिबल” यह तो हमारी एक टैगलाइन सी बन गई, ऑनलाइन क्लासेस ने भी हमें काफी कुछ सिखाया, हम जैसे बुद्धु को थोडा हाई टेक बनाया

एक दिन अचानक फिर से कॉलेज खुले, लेकिन हम जूनियर से सीधा सुपर सीनियर के रूप में बने,

अब कॉलेज की रीनक फिर से लौटने लगी, क्लासेस के साथ साथ – ग्राउंड, कैंटीन, लॉन में भी हलचल बढ़ने लगी

फेस्ट और इवेंट की तैयारी में हम भी काफी बिजी थे, लेकिन वो कॉलेज में कुछ आखिरी दिन भी धीरे धीरे बीतने लगे थे

खुशनसीब है हम, जो इस कॉलेज में आए, जहां प्रोफेसर और सीनियर भी हमने दोस्तो जैसे पाए

सिलेबस के लेक्चर के साथ कुछ लाइफ के लेसन भी मिले, और सच में इन तीन साल ने हमारे यादों के पिटारे भर दिये

अब चलते हैं एक नए सफर पर कुछ यादें साथ समेटे हुए, कुछ इम्मोशन के साथ –साथ एक मुस्कान चेहरे पर लिए हुए ।

मेरे अधूरे प्रश्न....???

कल रात जहन में आया एक प्रश्न ! हम कहाँ थे, और वर्तमान में कहाँ है ..? इस पुलकित चमन के गगन में गूँजता शोर आज खामोश क्यों है? इस सुगन्धित वातावरण की शीतल हवा सहसा विषैली क्यों है?

भारत की अखण्डता खण्डित क्यों होने लगी है यहाँ के प्रत्येक जन को एकता से बाँधने वाला सूत्र दुर्बल क्यों होने लगा ? करोड़ों दिलों को सौहार्द से बाँधने वाली माला आखिर बिखरने क्यों लगी ? यहाँ एक देश में अनेक देश उभरने लगे ? क्यों आज सत्ता का लोभ मानवता की घृणित चरम सीमा में प्रवेश करने लगा ? आखिर क्यों अम्बेडकर का संविधान महिलाओं की सुरक्षा सुनिश्चित नहीं कर पा रहा है ? क्यों व्यक्ति बार-बार अपराधों की सीमा लाँघ रहा है? क्यों इस स्वतन्त्र देश में मानसिक पर परतंत्रता के घनघोर बादल छाए हुए है?

ऐसे अनेक प्रश्न ज़हन में आते हैं, परन्तु उत्तर की खोज में आकाश सी अनंतता है... दुर्भाग्यवश प्रश्न अधूरे ही रह जाते हैं। मैं अभिनन्दन के मधुर गीत नहीं गा सकती हूँ। मैं पीड़ा की चीखों में संगीत नहीं ला सकती हूँ।

Self-Defence: Privy to The National Development

The Self-Defense Training Program for women, conducted in college, triggered deliberations on the essence of such training programs in a civilized society. Defense (bodily safety and security techniques) from evil elements actually gives the sufficient basis for research in this area. In any civilized society, what is the need for such training for women? Who are these evil elements, and who is responsible for threatening the soft gender?

And, what is the role of education? Are educators not performing well or have they been inefficient against this menace?

For any economy to prosper and progress, genders must co-exist with mutual respect for each other. Here, the role of educational institutions, educators, police, and policy-makers is pivotal and they restrain the exacerbation of this problem.

India has entered its 75th year of Independence and has been celebrating Azaadi Ka Amrit Mahotsava. It is sad that the country is still in the grip of practices that de-escalate national growth and bring bad name. This must be checked by inculcating societal values among children at an early age, with the efforts of family, neighborhood, and social institutions like schools and colleges.

The NEP-2020 is about to rollout from the academic session 2022-2023. It is time to build a befitting environment where all genders move freely and no one judges the other in terms of their appearances and clothing, then only the 21st century New India will open up for economic growth, development, peace and prosperity.

Dynamics of Russia-Central Asia Relation Amidst Ukrainian Crisis

Russia's role in Asian geopolitics is significant. Moscow is an economic partner, a military leader, and a weapons supplier for Asian countries. However, the Ukraine conflict has revealed that opinions toward the Kremlin vary greatly throughout the region. In early March 2022, the United Nations General Assembly condemned Russia by a vote of 141 to 4, with 35 nations abstaining. Among them were Armenia, Bangladesh, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Mongolia, Pakistan, and Vietnam, as well as China and India. Azerbaijan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan were among the 12 countries that did not vote. Each Asian country views the invasion of Ukraine through the lens of its relationship with Russia.

Each Asian country views the Russia's military operations in Ukraine through the lens of its relationship with Moscow. Russian Federation is a major commercial partner or investor for various countries. Others believe that Russian-speaking minority constitute a sizable proportion of the population. Moscow is a significant arms exporter and, at times, a military model to emulate. Other variables, like ties with China and the West, also have a role to put Moscow in a favorable geopolitical position in Asia.

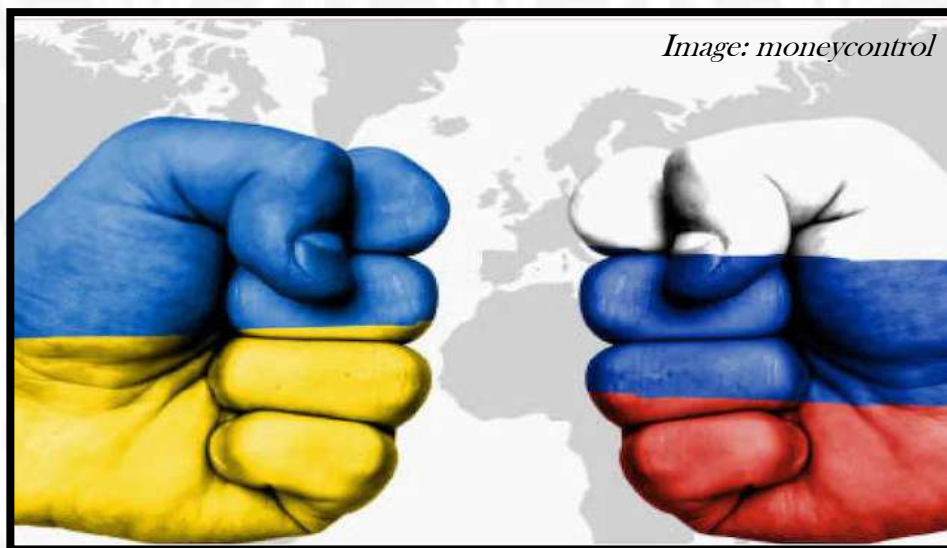

Almost all Central Asian nations avoided denouncing Russia at the United Nations. It is practicality, not ideology that binds these countries to Moscow. The Kremlin regards these countries as crucial to its own security. A western narrative that any reaction might place these countries in a position similar to Ukraine has been circulating since Russia started its military operation in Ukraine. However, this seems irrational as Russia-Central Asia relations are based on long-term strategic ties. Furthermore, all Central Asian nations have Russian-speaking populations as well as strong economic and political links to the Kremlin. Some of these countries are members of the Eurasian Economic Union, which is governed by Russia. These countries also consider their alliance with Russia as a tool for countering Chinese dominance. Moscow and Beijing are fighting for influence in Central Asia. The region's countries have a strategic interest in balancing the two, thus they cooperate with Russia.

Impact of Ukrainian Conflict on Central Asia

The ongoing conflict between Ukraine and Russia will have an immediate impact on Central Asian countries. Although the Central Asian nations have adopted a neutral posture in the war, the leaders of Uzbekistan, Kazakhstan, and Kyrgyzstan spoke on the phone with Putin when Moscow started a special military operation in Ukraine on February 24, 2022. As a result, the United States and other Western countries have taken serious efforts to limit Moscow's economic capabilities, imposing tough economic sanctions. It will have a significant influence on the economies of Central Asia. Remittances from migrant workers in Russia account for a sizable amount of Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, and Uzbekistan's GDP. Following Russia's annexation of Crimea in 2014, economic restrictions were imposed, affecting Central Asia as well. It is much more crucial at this point because of the Central Asian are still struggling to overcome the economic damages created by Covid-19 pandemic.

The conflict between Russia and Ukraine will have economic and geopolitical ramifications for the Central Asian region.

Economic Impact

Russia is one of Central Asia's most important commercial partners. Kazakhstan and Kyrgyzstan are members of the Eurasian Economic Union (EAEU), which is governed by Russia, while Uzbekistan is an observer. By the end of 2021, the EAEU's foreign commerce had expanded by more than 34%, while internal trade had increased by 67%. This is a positive indicator for the Eurasian Union's growing trade and economic ties. The total GDP growth rate was 4.4 percent, which was significantly higher than expected. Russia's economic sanctions would have a severe influence on the Eurasian Economic Union's external and internal commerce. The EAEU members held an emergency meeting to discuss the measures to minimize the impact of the economic sanctions against Russia which will also impact other EUEU members.

Furthermore, Central Asian labour migrants in Russia make considerable contributions to their home countries' economy. According to the Russian Ministry of Internal Affairs, over 3 million migrant workers from Uzbekistan, over 1.6 million from Tajikistan, and 620,000 from Kyrgyzstan entered Russia between January and September 2021. Furthermore, remittances, particularly from Russia, make for 30% of Tajikistan's GDP, 28% of Kyrgyzstan's GDP, and roughly 12% of Uzbekistan's GDP. With the introduction of sanctions by the United States, the United Kingdom, and other European nations, the Ruble has begun to fall, lowering the value of migrant workers' earnings and savings. The national currencies of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, and Uzbekistan all experienced similar devaluation.

Geopolitical Impact

Russia's role in quelling the demonstrations in Kazakhstan in January 2022 is typically regarded through the perspective of an enlarged and strong Russian influence in the region. As a result, geopolitical concerns about Russia's intrusive activities in the context of the Ukraine conflict have reverberated throughout Central Asia. As a result, no Central Asian countries have spoken out in support of Russia's activities in Ukraine. The Central Asian leaders have also not condemned Russia's military actions in Ukraine. It should be underlined that Russia will neither take Kazakhstan nor capture Bishkek or Tashkent. Moscow, on the other hand, maintains military outposts in Central Asia and is continuously looking for opportunities to use crises and societal factionalism for geopolitical gain.

Conclusion

The war between Russia and Ukraine has once again left Central Asian countries in a difficult position. For the time being, they have refrained from making big statements, but the consequences of this crisis will have a long-term impact on the region. Central Asian leaders may be cautious of Moscow's efforts as a result of the alarming situation that this crisis has created. This might, on the other hand, contribute to a strengthening of Russia-Central Asian relations. Therefore, it is far too early to make any predictions regarding the future of Russia-Central Asia ties. For Moscow, ensuring the economic well-being and security of its Central Asian neighbours will become increasingly crucial. The CSTO and the EAEU will be viewed in higher respect than they have ever been. Furthermore, this circumstance will promote regional collaboration, which has just taken a favourable turn.

Life of a DU Fresher

The day that usually started with a relaxed cup of tea, now starts with the question - what should I wear today? Hurry, I have to reach the college on time! The time I used to ask for lunch after a boring long day is now the time when I am at Dabri Metro Station. The time I used to spend on my bed looking at the mobile screen for classes or entertainment, is now spent on the Magenta Line listening to songs and watching videos till Chirag Delhi arrives.

People talk about the first day of college being special for them. For me (and my batch-mates) the first day - and the first month of college - ended up being online. So, it was on 17 February 2022, that I actually got to attend college in physical mode. I received all sorts of advice and wishes from family-members and friends - be an extrovert, welcome new people, don't be the silent one etc. Thankfully, my first day turned out to be a happy memory. I made new friends, met new people, and enjoyed myself. The buzz around the college building, the happy crowd, the excited and nervous faces, - it was something to experience. Covid-19 outbreak had taken all this away from us, but now once again there was hope that life could return to normalcy.

However, college is not only about fun and one of the main reasons I chose Delhi University was its stellar academic record. So, the last days of Semester-I were spent in completing assignments, submitting files, taking tests, etc. Little things like group activities, submitting assignments on the same day, even bunking classes, were what we had been missing all this while.

As a fresher and a cricket player, I also started going for trials and practise with my seniors. I came to know them better and that made me even more comfortable in college. My friends also joined different college societies and took part in programs to get their share of an exciting, fun and hectic college life. I watched so many things unfold around me and felt so lucky.

My first day ended with a walk back to the Metro with my new and lovely friends. Back to Dabri Metro Station, then a shared rickshaw back home where some happy faces eagerly asked me - How was your day? Did you have fun?

Life is a River

*"What did you lose that you cry for?
What did you bring with you that you have lost?
What did you create which is now destroyed?
Whatever you have taken; you have taken from here;
Whatever was given; was given here".*

How beautiful and eternally truthful these lines sound but in today's world we have forgotten that nothing is permanent. We cry, we regret, and somewhere we lose ourselves in sorrows that are inevitable.

Humans are complex organisms. We tend to complicate the simplicity of life. Often we tend to not accept but repent and burden ourselves with thoughts of what has happened and what will happen. All this while, we forget that there exists a today that we need to live and cherish.

Life is a river, with not one but many hurdles to overcome. The nature of the river is to keep flowing despite the obstacles. To not ponder on what came and wonder what lies ahead. The only goal is to reach the sea, however and whenever.

So live what you have today because the past is gone and there may not be a tomorrow.

Please Come and Take Me Away

Let her see	She is no more an inmate without a cage
How cruel this world is	But heavens cried one day
She gets bruised and dragged	Don't touch her
But the wounds help her remember	She cried in pain and begged,
That her ambitions cause pain to some,	The horror of that night
Don't consider her an impeccable soul	Her motionless eyes asked for help
She has grudges against the world.	From the infinite sky,
Let her be	That witnessed the injustice
So she won't live inside a fictional castle	The scream dying in her throat
Which may shatter with a delicate desire	Didn't matter to those blinded by lust
But don't set her on fire	Till there was nothing left
You will dust into ashes	Except a bleeding body, a vacant stare
And the remnants won't find their destiny either.	Someone found her blood-soaked clothes
She is doubtful of stepping in	Which left a void in many lives
Where her seeds of aspirations are crushed	An innocent soul has been torn apart
Against the wall of parochialism	I wish I could die in the solace of her corpse
Set her free	And buried around her
To sabotage the confinement	Now, every action is for her.

Foolish or wise?

Words and meanings
Truths and lies
Trying my best
To stop her cries
But there was something going on inside
A feeling that can't be expressed in lines

Something to say
And
Something to ask
But I was covering my face
With a smiling mask

Father was there
Sitting and smiling
Asking my mother
To stop her crying
Telling her
That I'll be fine
Telling her
That I'll rise and shine
Telling mother
To stop her crying.

Happiness- Raw and Unending

The shimmer of smiles,
the charm of evenings,
the stories in eyes, the extra fries;
The giggles of a child, the freshness of grass, the aroma of tea, the tranquillity of sea;
The chirping of birds, the songs of wind, the shade of trees, the winter
breeze;
The care of families, the childhood memories, the blush of love, the beauty of the sky above.
Happiness is always around, raw and unending.

Marriage - A Shopping Spree

When I turn twenty-one, I go shopping.
There I am asked my age.
Am I twenty and young or am I twenty six and late?
I don't know, the shoppers
decide.
There are advertisements and there is demand
The customers ask
What colours do they come in?
What sizes are available?
It's too short, they exclaim
Too dark, they loathe.
The price tag is proportionate to salary figures
This shop is a frenzy
There are trials and there are price wars
The sellers pay, the buyers
decide
Although there exists a choice
Of not choosing but of being chosen.
This shop is a frenzy
Now, you may ask
Am I shopping or up for sale?
I don't know, the shoppers decide
When I turn twenty-one, I turn of marriageable age
Or do I not?
I don't know, the shoppers
decide.

Self Talk

Coffee on my table
A pen in my hand
Things in my mind
Gonna explode in a bang!

Not good with rhymes
Still trying to write
Cause I think I have something called sight

Enough of sadness
And enough of cries
I think it's time
Wake up and rise

You want to shine?
First you've to burn
You want respect?
That you've to earn.

Nothing here comes
Free of cost
Set afire and burn it
Ablaze your heart
Set on fire and burn it
Ablaze your heart

Nothing here goes
Just for fun
Wanna look different?
You've got to run

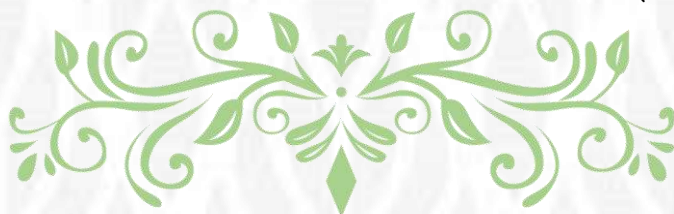

I have a dream
And I'm gonna make it true
I'm ready for anything
To throw in and go through

Stop expecting
Reality hits hard
Wanna face it?
Ablaze your heart
Wanna face it?
Ablaze your heart.

Twinkle Twinkle

Twinkle Twinkle little star
 How I wonder, what people are Sometimes bitter, Sometimes sweet
 Sometimes spicy, Sometimes cheesy
 OMG they all are making me dizzy

They are talkative, they are silent
 Making my life hell and violent,
 They are kind, they are rude
 IDK why everything depends on their mood.

Praise in front, on the back they criticize
 Can't handle these double-faced people guys,
 Why they can't be real, stop being fake
 I request all of you for god's sake.

Now, fed up with the world of fake domination
 Want a real fascination,
 But this can happen only in mind's eye
 We can call it imagination.

Twinkle Twinkle little star,
 Now no wonder know, What people are..

A Butterfly

Pretty to see hard to catch
 A butterfly that attracts.
 A girl should be like this,
 And make-her world full of bliss.
 You can be a lioness or a butterfly,
 What you want, will help you to reach the sky.
 Just raise your voice as a roar
 Enemy of your, should lick
 the floor
 You should be full of fire,
 You should be full of rage,
 That nobody dare to catch
 you in a cage.
 Tall, short no matter white or brown.
 Just don't forget to protect your invisible crown
 No need to bear anything,
 make some noise
 Just know your potential
 You can be thousands of women' voice.
 Keep shining like a sun but no need to burn,
 For sake of your values be stubborn.
 Put yourself first, not third,
 Just as Huma, a mysterious bird
 Pretty to see hard to catch
 An iron girl that attracts.
