NOTICE

This is to inform all 1st and 2nd year single-parent female students of the College that, as per the letter received from the University of Delhi Foundation regarding Project Sashakt Beti, details are being collected for extending support to students from marginalised sections under the said initiative.

In this connection, all single-parent female students of the first and second year are required to submit a copy of their Family's Annual Income Certificate (with family income not exceeding ₹4,00,000 per annum). For the purpose, the College has created a Google Form to collect the required information. All eligible students are requested to fill out the Google Form latest by 30th October, 2025.

The certificate is required for preparing the college data to be submitted to the University of Delhi Foundation for consideration under Project Sashakt Beti, which provides laptops and academic support to eligible students.
